FORTIETH CONGRESS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 21, 1868.

SENATE.

The joint committee on Library were discharged from the further consideration of petitions on the subject of an international copyright law.

The concurrent resolution declaring the ratification of the fourteenth amendment was taken up and adopted. It declares that three-fourths of the States, including Ohio and New Jersey, having adopted the amendment, it has become a part of the Constitution of the United States.

A resolution was offered instructing the Secretary of the Senate to pay the Senators from Arkansas, Florida, North Carolina and Louisiana the compensation allowed by law, computing from the commencement of the Fortieth Congress. A debate arising, it went over.

The joint resolution admitting steam plows free of duty for one year from June 30th last, was passed.

Mr. MORTON called up the bill to authorize the construction of bridges across the Ohio, which was opposed by Mr. POMEROY and supported by Mr. CAMERON until ten o'clock, when the special order, the bill for the protection of American citizens in foreign countries, came up and was assigned for the evening session to-night.

The bill granting a pension to the widow of Brig. Gen. Wallace was passed.

Also, a bill making appropriation for Columbia Institution for Deaf and Dumb.

Mr. HOWE presented the report of the Committee of Conference on the Indian Appropriation bill, which was adopted.

The Senate went into Executive Session.

When the doors re-opened Mr. SHERMAN offered a concurrent resolution for the adjournment of Congress sine die on Friday next.

Mr. HOWARD and several others expressed the hope that no day would be designated until after the bill for the reduction of the military peace establishment became a law. They would not consent to place it in the power of the President to retain it in his possession.

Mr. HENDRICKS opposed the bill as dangerous, because it proposed to arm one political party against the other. He hoped the President would exercise the power he possessed to prevent this bill becoming a law. The President owed this, not only to his constitutional duty, but to the peace and quiet of the country.

Mr. WILSON replied that not a single gun would be fired unless there should be such a powerful combination to violate the law that it would be beyond the power of the civil authorities to disperse it. Mr. Wilson did not believe that over four States could be carried for Seymour and Blair. He charged the Democratic party with being the authors of the rebellion, and eulogized the Republican party as the holiest and purest in the universe.

Mr. SHERMAN said, after the utterance of the Senator from Indiana, that the President intended to avail himself of the constitutional prerogative to defeat the will of Congress by withholding this bill ten days, he could not consent to adjourn till the bill passed over his objections. He moved Executive session. The motion was not acted on.

The report of the Committee of Conference on the deficiency bill was agreed to.

Evening Session.—The joint resolution authorizing the payment of the full amount of subsidy of half a million of dollars to the Pacific Mail Company for Japanese and China services was passed.

Mr. SUMNER reported from the Foreign Committee resolutions of sympathy with the Cretans, and of the hope that the Turkish Government will grant them peace, and making it the duty of the President to instruct our Minister to Turkey to coöperate with those of other powers in good offices to terminate the sufferings of the people of Crete. The resolutions were adopted.

The CHAIR submitted a telegram from Governor Bullock, announcing the ratification of the fourteenth amendment by Georgia.

The bill to authorize the erection of bridges across the Ohio river was debated.

Mr. DOOLITTLE offered an amendment authorizing the Secretary of War to appoint a board of not less than seven engineers to investigate in regard to the proper width and report at next session, suspending in the meantime all building of bridges.

This was accepted by Mr. MORTON.

The amendment by Mr. VAN WINKLE, that the bill shall not apply to bridges already in process of construction, was rejected.

Mr. WILLEY offered an amendment requiring the proposed Board of Engineers to examine the Steubenville bridge and report whether it is an obstruction, and if so what should be done to remedy it.

Mr. HENDRICKS offered another amendment, providing that the bill shall not apply to the bridge in process of construction at Louisville, the same to be not less than 400 feet span.

The bill then passed and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The Senate amendment to House resolution restoring Commander A. K. Hughes to the active list in the navy was concurred in, after striking out the name of Commander Cilley for restoration.

Mr. KELLY introduced a bill to promote the establishing of an international metrical system of coinage. Referred to Committee on Coinage.

Mr. DAWES, from Election Committee, reported the credentials of the Alabama representatives correct, and moved that the test oath be administered to them.

After some discussion by Messrs. Brooks and Dawes the previous question was seconded and the report adopted—134 to 36, and the oath administered to C. W. Buckley, Benj. W. Norris, Charles W. Pierce, J. B. Callis and Thomas Houghey, who took seats as members from Alabama.

The conference report to supply vacancies in the executive departments was agreed to.

The concurrent resolution, received from Senate, declaring the ratification by three-fourths of the States of the Union of the 14th amendment, and declaring it part of the Constitution of the United States, was adopted under the operation of the previous question—126 against 32.

During the proceedings a dispatch was received from Governor Bullock, announcing the ratification of the amendment by the Georgia Legislature by thirty-four majority on joint ballot.

The House resumed the consideration of the funding bill.

Mr. BOUTWELL advocated his substitute at length.

Mr. SCHENCK opposed the substitute and Mr. PIKE favored the Senate bill.

A colloquy occurred between the latter and Mr. ELDRIDGE, during which the former said he was in favor of paying the 5-20's in greenbacks, though not of issuing a batch of greenbacks for the purpose, while Mr. ELDRIDGE was for withdrawing the National Bank currency, supplying its place with greenbacks, and paying the debt with them.

Mr. BOUTWELL resumed the floor and concluded his speech.

Mr. RANDALL argued for the postponement of funding till next session, though he preferred the bill of the Committee of Ways and Means to that of the Senate.

Mr. GARFIELD spoke in favor of the Senate bill and of the payment of Five-Twenties in gold.

The consideration of the bill was interrupted by reports from Conference Committees.

That on the bill granting lands to the State of Minnesota to aid in improving the navigation of the Mississippi river was agreed to. The Senate had receded from its amendment.

The Conference report on the Indian appropriations was agreed to.

A recess was taken.

Evening Session.—The consideration of the funding bill was resumed.

Mr. MARSHALL opposed it.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Illinois, made a report from the Committee of Conference on the deficiency bill, stating that it contained a million and a half for rivers and harbors, the total bill being three and half millions. Agreed to.

The consideration of the funding bill was resumed.

After speeches by Messrs. Lawrence, Benton and Schenck, Mr. HOLMAN moved to table the bill. Rejected—35 to 100.

The House proceeded to vote on the amendments reported from the Committee of the Whole.

The first amendment, fixing the lowest denomination of bonds at fifty dollars, was agreed to without division.

The second amendment, striking out the provision for twenty, thirty and forty years bonds at various rates of interest, substituting for it one to issue of bonds at 36 5-100 per cent. interest, was agreed—74 to 61.

The third amendment, providing the income from the bonds shall never be liable to taxation, was adopted—eighty-five to sixty-three.

Amendments four to nine, being merely verbal, were agreed to.

The tenth amendment, striking out the section of the Senate bill legalizing coin contracts was agreed to—eighty-seven to forty-eight.

The eleventh and twelfth sections being merely verbal, were agreed to.

The thirteenth amendment, a new section, offered in Committee by Mr. Randall, requiring sales, &c., of bonds to be made by advertising for proposals, was agreed to without division.

The fourteenth amendment, a new section, offered in Committee by Mr. Logan, requiring the tax on income of bonds to be collected by the Treasurer, was agreed to—90 against 20.

The fifteenth amendment, a new section, terminating the authority of the Secretary of the Treasury to issue bonds, &c., under existing laws, was agreed to without division.

Mr. BOUTWELL'S substitute for the bill was rejected—66 against 72.

The bill passed—79 to 68.

A motion to reconsider was tabled.

Adjourned.

Success of the Revolutionists in Venezuela —City of Carracas Surrendered.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HAVANA, July 21.—The revolutionists captured the city of Carracas. They carried the outworks by storm on the 23d of June, but did not then gain entire possession of the city, the public buildings and churches having been strongly fortified by the besieged. The place, however, was finally surrendered on the 25th, and Gen. Monoghes at the head of an army made a triumphant entry. Gen. Bruzal, commander of the government forces, escaped by flight. Porto Cabello remained true to the Government, and is well fortified and garrisoned by one thousand men and protected by three war steamers. It was believed General Bruzal had gone there and Monaghas started with 2,000 men in pursuit. On taking possession of Carracas the revolutionists established a government with General Monaghas at the head. All foreign Ministers were notified of the change and were recognized by the new government. A Ministry has been formed by General Monaghas from the best men in his party.

Meeting of New York Grain Brokers.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 21.—A meeting of the Board of Grain Brokers was called to-day at one o'clock, at the Produce Exchange, to listen to an address by Col. Myron Caloney, of St. Louis, in regard to the grain trade of the west and navigation between New York and St. Louis. The speech was attentively listened to, and at the close the following resolutions were read and adopted:

Resolved, That we view with pleasure the energy now being shown by St. Louis merchants in their efforts for shipping grain on the Mississippi and Missouri rivers.

Resolved, That we heartily coincide with them in their views in relation to the grain trade between New York and St. Louis, and that we will extend to them a helping hand.

Resolved, That the St. Louis grain market be telegraphed and posted on the bulletin of the produce exchange.

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be tendered to Cal. Caloney for the interest he has taken in the grain trade of the two cities and energy he has displayed in bringing it before our Board.

After a few remarks on the subject by one or two gentlemen, the meeting adjourned.

Alabama Legislature.

[By telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MONTGOMERY, July 21.—Bills are pending in both Houses to adopt the Code of Alabama where it is not in conflict with the new Constitution.

The House passed the bill fixing the pay of members, &c.

The Senatorial question came up at noon. The principal candidates for the long term were D. C. Humphreys, of Huntsville, Gen. Geo. E. Spencer, Bankruptcy Register, and Gen. Willard Warner. On the third ballot in the Senate Spencer received eighteen votes and in the House on the second ballot fifty-four votes. This gave him more than a majority of the two Houses. The Senate, without taking a ballot for the other Senator, adjourned till to-morrow. In the House Albert Griffin, D. E. Cook, Willard Warner and J. L. Pennington were nominated for the short term and a vote taken, but without a choice. The two Houses meet in joint session to-morrow. The contest is thought to be between Pennington and Warner.

Mississippi—Nominations by the President—Patents Issued—Military Changes.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 21, 1868.

CONDITION OF MISSISSIPPI.

General Gillem has submitted to General Grant a report of his action and as regards the condition of Mississippi under the reconstruction acts. He states the result of the late election was, for the Constitution 56,231, against it 63,860. Gen. Gillem says: "As is generally the case in elections, fraud is charged by both parties. All reports and complaints bearing on the subject are herewith transmitted for the consideration of the proper authorities, merely remarking that I am satisfied the election was as fair and free from intimidation or influence or fraud as it would be possible to receive under existing circumstances, and that no undue influence was exercised at the polls. If intimidation was used at all, it was beyond the power of the military to watch it. As the defeat of the Constitution renders it possible the State may for a time remain under military control, I consider it my duty to call attention to the almost impossibility of finding persons to fill vacancies in civil offices, who possess the necessary attainments and can qualify under the existing laws. I would therefore recommend section 9 of the act of July 19th, 1867, be so modified as to render eligible to office persons on the list of registered and qualified voters to fill vacancies which exist or may occur in civil offices, State or municipal."

APPOINTMENTS.

The President has sent the following nominations to the Senate: J. W. Meeks, of New York, Consul at Nantes; Dorrence Atwater, Consul at Seychelles; William B. Storms, of New York, Consul at Leeds; Moses E. Flanagan, Assessor of Thirty-second District of New York, in place of the nomination of Charles H. Hall, withdrawn; Ira H. Smith, Register of Land Office at Topeka, Kansas; Warren Lockhart, Register at Carson City, Nevada; Stephen T. Chadwick, Receiver, Roseburg, Oregon; S. Ferguson Black, United States Attorney for Virginia. A large number of nominations were also made to fill post-offices at unimportant points.

MILITARY GAZETTE.

Brevet Major Joseph G. Crane, Chief Commissary of the Fourth Military District, has been ordered to take the station at Cincinnati, from August 1st to October 31st, for the purpose of distribution of subsistence stores for the Fourth District. General Rucker is assigned as Chief Quartermaster of the Department at Philadelphia, and General Dugall as Chief Quartermaster of the Department of the East, commanded by General McDowell.

NOMINATIONS CONSIDERED.

It is understood the nomination of Edmund Cooper, for Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has been withdrawn. It is probable the Committee on Foreign Relations will report against the nominations for Ministers to Russia, Mexico and Spain, but in favor of Henry Watts as Minister to Austria.

THE MATTER OF ADJOURNMENT.

A canvass of Republican members of the House to-day, on the question of adjourning the session or taking a recess until September or October, showed there were eighty members for a recess against twenty-eight for adjournment.

PATENTS ISSUED.

Two hundred and forty-four patents were issued from the Patent Office during the week ending to-day. Three hundred and twenty-five applications and sixty caveats were filed during the same period.

CABINET SESSION.

ST. LOUIS.

Railroad Engineers' Strike—Train Thrown from the Track.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, July 21.—The difficulty on the Pacific Railroad has not yet been adjusted, and much feeling and considerable excitement is the result. Monday night a freight train was thrown from the track at Taylorwick, three-and-a-half miles from St. Louis, through the displacement of a switch, and the engine, tender and two stock cars badly injured, resulting in an estimated damage of from $10,000 to $15,000. It is stated the switch was opened by some disaffected men, they still retaining their switch lockkey; but the engineers positively assert they have not, nor do they intend, in any way to interfere with the property of the Company. They attribute this and some other accidents which have occurred on the road to the intemperance of the new men employed by Col. Moore.

A committee of Engineers has gone to Buffalo to lay the matter before Mr. Wilson, Grand Master of the Foot Board Association, and obtain advice as to what shall be done. A report was circulated to-day that Col. Moore would resign, with the consent of the Directory, but this afternoon the Directory unanimously adopted a resolution again sustaining Col. Moore and instructing him to carry out his plan of organizing the working force of the road. Trains are running, but not very regularly, owing to accidents occasioned either through malicious interference on the part of the discharged or incompetence and ignorance of the new men of the rules of the road. A good deal of apprehension is felt by the traveling community, and a strong desire exists that the trouble may soon cease.

Base Ball at Chicago—Arrest for Pocket-Picking.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

—Intelligence from St. Domingo is that a revolution has broken out in the northern portion of that country, headed by Ex-President Cabral and General Luperan. Inside of St. Domingo arrests and banishments continue. President Baez has sent assistance to Gen. Solnave.

POLITICAL.

Blair's Letter Accepting the Democratic Nomination for Vice-President.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The following is a copy of Gen. Blair's letter of acceptance of the Democratic nomination for Vice-President, which has just been received here:

General Geo. W. Morgan, Chairman of the Committee of the National Democratic Convention: GENERAL.—I take the earliest opportunity of replying to your letter notifying me of my nomination for Vice President of the United States by the National Democratic Convention recently held in the city of New York. I accept without hesitation the nomination tendered in a manner so gratifying, and give you and the Convention my thanks for the very kind and complimentary language in which you have conveyed to me the decision of the Convention. I have carefully read the resolutions adopted by the Convention and most cordially concur in every principle and sentiment they announce. My opinion upon all the questions which discriminate the great contending parties have been freely expressed on all suitable occasions, and I do not deem it necessary at this time to reiterate them. The issue upon which the contest turns is clear and cannot be obscured or distorted by the sophistries of our adversaries. They all resolve themselves into the old and ever recurring struggle of a few men to absorb the political power of the nation. This effort, under every conceivable name and disguise, has always characterized the opponents of the Democratic party; but at no time has the attempt assumed so open and daring a shape as in this contest. The adversaries of free and constitutional Government, in defiance of the express language of the Constitution, have erected a military despotism in ten of the States of the late Union, have taken from the President the power vested in him by the supreme law, and have deprived the Supreme Court of its jurisdiction, and the right of trial by jury, and the great writ of right, the habeas corpus, shields of safety for every citizen, which have descended to us from the earliest traditions of our ancestors, and which our Revolutionary fathers fought to secure to their posterity forever in the fundamental charter of our liberties, have been ruthlessly trampled under foot by the fragment of a Congress. Whole States and communities of the people of our race have been attainted, convicted, condemned and deprived of their rights as citizens without presentment, or trial, or witness, but by congressional enactment of ex post facto laws, and in defiance of the constitutional prohibition denying to a full and loyal Congress the authority to pass any bill of attainder or ex post facto law, the same usurping authority has substituted as electors in place of your own race, thus illegally attainted and disfranchised, a host of ignorant negroes, who are supported in idleness by the public money, and combined together to strip the whites of their birthright through the management of the Freedmen's Bureau and emissaries of the conspirators in other States, and to complete the oppression the military power of the nation has been placed at their disposal. In order to make this barbarism supreme, the military leader, under whose prestige this usurping Congress has taken refuge since the condemnation of their schemes by the free people of the North in the election, of the last year, they have selected as their candidate to shield themselves from the result of their wickedness and crime. He has announced his acceptance of the nomination and his willingness to maintain their usurpations over eight millions of white people at the South fixed to the earth with his bayonets. He exclaims, "Let us have peace!" "Peace reigns in Warsaw," was the announcement which heralded the doom of the liberties of a nation. "The empire is peace," exclaimed Bonaparte, when freedom and its defenders expired under the sharp edge of the sword. The peace to which Grant invites us is the peace of despotism and death. Those who seek to restore the country by executing the will of the people, condemning the reconstruction acts already pronounced on in the elections of last year, and which will, I am convinced, be still more emphatically expressed by the election of the Democratic candidate as President of the United States, are denounced as revolutionizers by the partizans of this vindictive Congress. Negro suffrage, which the popular votes of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Connecticut, and other States have condemned as expressly against the letter of the Constitution, must stand, because their Senators and Representatives have willed it. If the people shall again condemn these attrocious measures by the election of the Democratic candidate for President, they must not be disturbed. Although decided to be unconstitutional by the Supreme Court, and although the President is sworn to maintain and support the Constitution, the will of a fraction of Congress, reinforced with its partizan emissaries, sent to the South and supported there by the soldiery, must stand against the will of the people and the decision of the Supreme Court, and the solemn oath of the President to maintain and support the Constitution. It is revolutionary to execute the will of the people. It is revolutionary in the President to keep inviolate his oath to sustain the Constitution. The false construction of the principles of our Government is the last resort of those who would sway and supercede our time honored institutions. The nation will say the Constitution must be restored and the will of the people again prevail. The appeal to the peaceful ballot to attain this end is not revolution. They make war and revolution who attempt to arrest this quiet mode of putting aside military despotism and the usurpations of a fragment of a Congress asserting absolute power over that benign system of regulated liberty. Let us stand by our fathers. This must be allowed to take its course. This is the only road to peace. It will come with the election of the Democratic candidate and not with the election of that mailed warrior, whose bayonets are now at the throat of eight millions of people in the South to compel them to support him as a candidate for the Presidency and to submit to the dominion of an alien race of semi-barbarous men. No perversion of truth, or audacity of misrepresentation, can exceed that which hails this candidate in arms as an angel of peace.

I am, very respectfully,
Your most obedient servant,
FRANK P. BLAIR.

Washington Topics and Gossip.

The most approved opinion with reference to the adjournment of Congress now is that it will take place about Friday or Saturday. Senators Sherman and Morrill, of Maine, who, as Chairmen of the Finance Committees, are conversant with the condition of business, think it will be on Friday.

Mr. Sherman has no expectation of getting any funding bill through this session, and, though it may go into the Conference Committee, there is small prospect that the House and Senate will agree.

Very unexpectedly the Senate passed the Military bill Monday evening. Its general character is the same as that referred to the Committee some time ago. It reduces the force to thirty thousand men. The opposition was mainly to the section authorizing the distribution of arms to States to the amount of one thousand Springfield rifles to the militia of each Congressional District. The Democrats fought against this, believing it calculated to put means of defence into the hands of the negroes and the new State authorities in the South. This section may possibly be taken out and passed as a joint resolution, but there is no prospect that the two Houses will agree upon a general bill readjusting the army establishment.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations have determined to report against the confirmation of Dawson as Minister to Russia, and McClernand as Minister to Mexico, and Rosecrans as Minister to Spain. Gen. Rosecrans would undoubtedly have been confirmed had he been nominated to Mexico, but the Committee on Foreign Relations are averse to displacing John P. Hale, who sat for many years in the Senate with some of them. They agree to report favorably in the case of Watts, of Philadelphia, as Minister to Austria.

The Finance Committee also met and determined to report in favor of the rejection of Mr. Cooper as Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and Mr. Wells as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

The Senate passed a concurrent resolution directing the Secretary of State to declare the constitutional amendments ratified.

Five Alabama members were qualified and took their seats in the House yesterday.

The accounts of the Mississippi election and State officers there continue to be received by the Union Congressional Executive Committee. They have received copies of printed certificates, issued to colored men, bearing the seal and signed by the Clerk of the Circuit and Probate Courts of Madison county. This certificate states that the negro therein described voted the Democratic ticket. Without it he cannot procure employment. The Committee have heard of a considerable number of precincts where Ku-Klux-Klan notices were posted up at the voting place, warning the negroes on penalty of death not to vote the Republican ticket.

The concurrent resolution declaring the constitutional amendment ratified passed the House with an amendment inserting Georgia in the preamble among the States which have ratified it.

—J. R. Graves, Republican candidate for Congressional nomination in the Dubuque, Iowa, district, and Geo. Crouse, law partner of H. B. Allison, the present incumbent, had a personal encounter and knock down in the street at St. Louis, yesterday, but neither party were much hurt.

SOME of the New York fashionables went out to the mountain picnic the other day, and the Home Journal tells what they had on. One young lady, the daughter of a well known New York lawyer, wore a suit of white pique, made with two skirts. The under or lower skirt was quite plain, while the upper was trimmed with wide cluny insertions, under which was placed a bright green ribbon. A short basquine was worn with this, trimmed with a row of cluny insertion and green ribbon to correspond with the trimming on the skirt. Her sister wore a short dress of yellow foulard, with a wide flounce around the skirt, and bound top and bottom with light brown silk. Over this was worn another skirt, gathered in every seam, in the middle of which was placed a bias fold of light brown silk. This suit was made with a loose, full body, and gathered in at the waist with a wide brown silk sash. The hat, which matched very well with this stylish suit, was of white straw, of the tester shape, bound with brown velvet, and ornamented with a small crimson feather.

—Port-au-Prince letters of June 22d state that an order of United States Minister Hollister, requiring all refugees to quit his consulate, has caused much consternation, and the Minister is denounced in strong terms. He claims to have received orders from Washington to pursue that course. The other Consuls have offered a refuge to any who may be able to reach their consulates.

—At Nashville, yesterday, Secretary Fletcher refused to sign the State bonds prepared for the Nashville and North Western railroad. Forty-five bonds had already been signed by his agent and delivered to the Receiver of the Road. The Secretary's refusal caused Cliffe to cease paying the employes, who prevented a construction train from leaving to repair the road, and declaring none should leave until they were paid.

—A dispatch from Omaha says that trains are now running seven hundred miles over the Union Pacific Railroad. Six hundred and eighty miles have already been examined by the United States Commissioner and pronounced a first class road in every respect. Twenty thousand men are at work, and it is expected not less than nine hundred miles will be finished this year, and that the whole line to the Pacific may be opened in 1869.

—The persons poisoned at the hotels at Owensboro, Ky., are all in a fair way of recovery. About eighty persons in all were effected. It is shown that the milk was poisoned by the introduction of arenic into the cans, but fortunately not in sufficient quantities to cause the death of any who partook of the lacteal fluid. The milk was supplied from the Indiana side of the river, and it is believed that the poison was introduced by some jealous rival in Kentucky who wished to injure the reputation of Indiana milk.

—From the report of Dr. Harris, head of the Bureau of Vital Statistics in New York, it appears that of the one thousand one hundred and forty-two deaths in the city last week four hundred and eighty-nine were from zymodic diseases, and of the four hundred and thirty-one in Brooklyn two hundred and thirty-one were from similar causes. There were one hundred and thirty-two deaths from sun stroke in New York and twenty-eight in Brooklyn. Five hundred and nineteen infants in the first year died in New York and two hundred and twenty-two in Brooklyn.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

In his speech accepting the nomination Mr. Blair said: "What civilized people on the earth would refuse to associate with themselves in all the rights, and honors, and dignities of the country each man as Lee and Johnson? [Voices, 'none,' 'none.'] What civilized country would fail to do honor to those who, fighting for an erroneous cause, yet distinguished themselves by gallantry never surpassed? [Applause.] In that contest, for which they are sought to be disfranchised and exiled from their home, in that contest they proved themselves to be our peers.

To which Col. Dick De Hart, of Indianapolis, recently, in a speech, made the following reply:

The loyal & ne and traitor gray
All e in the gra es are sleeping,
Side by side in the sunlight ray
And under the storm clouds weeping.
'Ti well to forgive the past—
God giving us grace we may;
But never while life shall last,
Can we honor or love the gray.

II.
Our boys in blue are loyal and true,
For their God and their country dying,
With a watchful pride that is ever n w,
We garland the graves where they are lying.
They were murdered by rebel hands—
They fell in fearful fray,
Guarding our flag from traitor hands—
We do not love the gray.

III.
We would not hate, our hearts would fain
Cast a vail o'er their shameful story,
It will not bring back our loyal slain
To retain their treason gory.
But barriers deep and wide—
Divide the false from the true—
Shall treason and honor stand side by side?
Is the gray the peer of the blue?

IV.
Answer each loyal heart to-day,
They are peers and equals, never;
No wreath on a traitor's grave we lay,
Let shame be his wreath forever.
Do they think we forgot our dead,
Our boys who wore the blue;
That because they sleep in the same cold bed
We know not the false from the true?

V.
Believe it not—where our heroes lie
The gory ground is holy;
His name who dared for the right to die
Is sacred, however lowly.
But honor the traitor gray?
Make it the peer of the blue?
One flower at the foot of treason lay?
Never, while God is true.

—In the Belgium and French provinces it is customary for the public to decide, at the beginning of every theatrical season, what new actors shall be engaged at the theatres of their places. A few performances are given to show the people the merits of the artists who wish to be engaged. This is an excellent plan, and it would be well for our theatre-goers if the managers here would pursue a similar policy.

A very interesting letter from our new territory of Alaska is published in the New York Tribune of yesterday. The report which had gained general credence that our troops stationed at Sitka were suffering from sickness and the want of ordinary comforts is denied, and it is asserted that the general health and temper of the American troops and settlers are good. Sitka possesses a beautiful harbor, but a dangerous one, owing to the large number of little inlets and rocks, between which pass narrow channels, any of them with sufficient water to float a ship, but hardly sea room enough to be safe. The town itself is situated on a point of land jutting out into the bay, from the base of the mountains, probably containing about a thousand acres, and from the character of the soil appears to have been made by the washings of the ocean. On the point is quite a large lake of fresh water, in front of which, along the edge of the bay, are about one hundred and fifty log houses, scattered about promiscuously. There is but one street, and that extends through the whole length of the town, and is continued for about a mile to Indian river, a little mountain stream emptying in the bay at this point. This is the only road on the island; beyond this, and in fact on all sides of the island, the thicket is impenetrable. The American colonists seem to be having a good time. The correspondent says: "We have parties, hops and balls to our hearts' content."

Prussia has shown her determination to become a first-rate maratime power, by making extraordinary appropriations for the year 1869, to be expended in the construction of fortifications at the sea ports she has just obtained, and in manufacturing heavy artillery and armored vessels. The entire sum of $7,152,347 is distributed as follows: $1,500,000 for the works at the port of Jahde, an $3,000,000 for the fortifications; $750,000 for the establishment of Kiel; for the armament of the port $3,000,000; construction on the land, $926,000; purchase of heavy artillery and experiments in firing, $225,000; submarine defences, $7,500; building vessels, $1,278,149; equipment of supplementary marine, $9,225. The whole amount to be expended at Kiel is stated to amount to $1,811,124, or $2,514,842 more than in 1868.

On the 16th of June Pius IX commenced the twenty-third year of his Pontifical reign. Since St. Peter, to whom history assigns twenty-five years, there have been but three Popes out of 258 who have lived to commence or to finish their twenty-third year of government. They are: Adrian I., the Pope of Charlemagne; Pius VI., the Pope of the Directory, and Pius VII., the Pope of Napoleon I. Pius IX will be the fourth. If he lives until June 16, 1869, he will stand alone with Pius VI.; if he lives till June 16, 1870, he will be matched only by St. Peter. But if he survives June 16, 1871, he will have outdone all preceding Popes, but St. Peter his equal.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather continues oppressively hot, the thermometer yesterday being up to 96 in the shade. It was quite cloudy in the afternoon, and strong hopes of rain soon were entertained.

The Camelia arrived at Cincinnati, from St. Louis, on Monday.

We call the attention of steamboatmen to the auction sale of the steamer Echo No. 3 in to-day's paper.

The Emma No. 3 arrived at New Orleans on the 11th.

—Captain John A. Duble is mentioned in connection with the command of the Mollie Able.

—It is rumored that Captain Frank Hicks is to have command of the Great Republic.

—The Nile, bound from Omaha, burst a steam pipe a few miles above St. Louis, Thursday.

—Capt. Ed. Evans of the Westmoreland, was to have left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Monday evening.

—The Rubicon, H. M. Shrieve, Julia and Luminary will enter the St. Louis and Vicksburg trade, the coming season, as weekly packets.

—Captain Harrison laid the Bart Able up at New Orleans on the 18th inst., and is now running the Rose Franks in the Red river trade. He wants the Golden Era there again by the first of September. A private letter from Capt. H. informs us that the crops promise splendidly.

—The St. Louis Republican, of Friday, contains the following: The entire immunity of the Atlantic and Mississippi Steamship Company's steamer from destruction by fire or sinking for twenty-six months past, is looked upon as a singular fact. Not one boat has the Company lost; yet the previous year eleven were totally obliterated from the river by accident, and some even the previous year, from the formation of the Company.

—The Memphis Avalanche, of Friday, has the following: An old and well-known dealer in wood at the landing, named McDonald, and familiary called "Old Mack," has been missing since the first of the month, and is supposed to have been foully dealt with. He was a bachelor and possessed considerable means, accumulated by years of toil, and lately gained a law suit involving money or property to the amount of about $16,000.

—The preparations on the monitors lying in the river at Algiers, Louisiana, and which are supposed to be sold to the Peruvian Government, are being rapidly pushed forward. It is thought they will be reardy for sea in about ten days. The commander at Fort Jackson has received orders to fire into them if they attempt to pass the forts. It is very doubtful whether any such precaution will stay their departure. The vessels supposed to be sold by Messrs. Swift & Co. are the Onieta and Catawba. The Catawba has her machinery all on board. Both are lying at the Marine Dry Dock.

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Gazette of Monday: The Evansville packet, Havana, had a fair trip out, on Saturday. She had in tow the United States snag boat, which has been lying at the Covington wharf for several months, and which is destined for Evansville, where the survey of the Ohio river will be recommenced. The whole river has been surveyed from Pittsburgh to Cairo, with the exception of that portion lying between Slim Island and Cairo—43 miles. Engineer Sigismund Loew has command of the party designated to survey the river from Evansville to Cairo, under the supervision of Col. W. M. Roberts. The survey will be topographical and hydraulic, and will not likely be completed before Christmas.

—The Cairo correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, is responsible for the following: By a private letter from Oxford, Mississippi, dated the 16th inst., we learn of a small piece of good fortune which befell the Sheriff of that county, Mr. W. S. McKee, a few days previous. While returning from an adjoining county he halted to bathe in the Tallahatchie river, where the water was shallow. While wading in the water his foot several times touched a smooth, flat surface, and at last his curiosity led him to examine it closely, when it proved to be a small iron chest. With considerable difficulty he removed it from the river and took it with him to Oxford, where he burst it open, and found in it $3,000 in silver, $2,800 in gold, $1,200 in Mexican, and $4,000 in Confederate money, but no papers of any kind to tell its history.

—A St. Louis dispatch, of Saturday, says: The Government steamer C. J. Caffrey, which started from St. Paul on Monday with Long's scraper, has done quick work. Telegrams were last evening sent to the large side-wheel steamers to come directly through, there being three and a half feet water on the bars. The Minnesota passed Dubuque on her way to St. Louis, with the largest passenger trip of the season. The Camelia leaves for the Missouri with a fair trip. The Welcome is the to-morrow boat for that river. The Abeona leaves for Cincinnati to-day, and the Ida Rees to-morrow; the latter takes 50 tuns of ore for Portsmouth. The W. R. Arthur, with a moderate trip, is the New Orleans boat to-day. Four boats will be engaged the coming season in the Vicksburg trade. Great difficulty is experienced here in getting sufficient force to load and unload boats on account of the excessive heat.

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. Sixty miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is on absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, car-shops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through business that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTCAGE BONDS

The Company have abundant means in their treasury, and make no appeal to the public to purchase their Bonds, as the daily subscriptions are entirely satisfactory; but they submit that, for entire security and liberal returns, there is certainly no better investment in the market.

The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of

NEARLY NINE PER CENT.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price of their bonds to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.

Parties subscribing will remit the par value of the bonds and the accrued interest in currency at the rate of six per cent. per annum, from the date on which the last coupon was paid. Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets;

HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;

S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Street;

PH. R. MERTZ, corner 5th and Wood Sts.;

AND IN NEW YORK

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street, and by

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street, and by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

GOLD closed yesterday in New York at 143@143¾.

THE strike of the operatives in the Anthracite region of Pennsylvania is likely to terminate in an adjustment satisfactory to all parties, the operatives generally resuming work in the mines and mills, at prices substantially the same as before.

THERE is a very general desire that Congress shall not adjourn to December, but take a recess to an intermediate day. And this is very strongly urged by the new members from the Southern States, who are peculiarly fitted to judge correctly of the possible future exigencies.

PENNSYLVANIA politicians seem to have been in favor with the President on the 20th. He nominated JOHN L. DAWSON to be Minister to Russia, and HENRY WATTS to the Austrian mission. The first is not likely to be confirmed; the second, who is said to be "a good Republican lawyer," of Philadelphia, may be approved by the Senate.

MCCLERNAND, of Illinois, a bitter enemy of Gen. GRANT, nominated for the Mexican Mission, and Gen. ROSECRANS, whose name has been sent in as Minister to Madrid, are neither of them likely to pass the Senate. The only objection to the latter is that he would supplant Hon. JOHN P. HALE, the present unobjectionable representative at Madrid.

WE regard it as fortunate that Congress hesitates to proceed with the scheme for the reduction of the military establishment. It was clearly the intention of majorities in each House to accomplish this reduction, and upon a decisive scale, at the present session, but the recent developments of revived and rampant rebelism, not only throughout the South, but in Copperhead councils, political and official, in the loyal States, renders it manifestly inexpedient to disarm the Federal authority of its effective power at this time. As to the large expenditure which would have been saved by the reduction, the people will agree that its continuance is properly chargeable to the Democratic endorsement of BLAIR and Revolution.

PITTSBURGH GAZETTE FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

THE Presidential fight having now fairly begun, and the newspaper press being one of the best weapons for effectual warfare, we propose to furnish the GAZETTE for the Campaign at the very low rate of 40 cents per copy for the Weekly and $2 for the Daily, from now to the close of the Presidential election.

The GAZETTE has been an earnest, consistent and efficient advocate of Republican principles, from the start, and it is therefore all the better qualified to present Republican arguments now, in this decisive contest, which must settle conclusively whether the nation shall go back to the old domination of slavery and the slave power, or go forward to the full fruition of the results accomplished by the war.

The old southern politicians, galvanized into new life by the Democratic nominations at New York, unhesitatingly avow that all the Confederacy fought for is to be gained in the election of SEYMOUR and BLAIR, and that Secession is not dead, but is to be fully and finally triumphant in the success of the Democratic candidates.

It has also been plainly given out, by the Democratic candidate for Vice President, that the Democracy, if successful this fall, intend to overturn by force the State governments established by the people of the South, thus giving notice in advance of another war, and the Democratic Convention, in nominating him for the Vice Presidency, gave the emphatic endorsement of the party to the incendiary and revolutionary threat.

Shall what the Confederacy fought for, and failed to attain, be now attained through SEYMOUR'S success? Shall Secession, overturned and defeated in the field, be allowed to triumph at the polls? Shall the Democracy, under the lead of SEYMOUR and BLAIR, be permitted to inaugurate a new Rebellion?

If not, it behooves the Republicans of Western Pennsylvania to labor with an earnestness and zeal befitting the perils of the hour; and one of the surest ways of meeting the enemy successfully is to circulate Republican papers freely, and put them into the hands of all who are willing to read them.

To this end we offer the GAZETTE at a very low rate for the campaign. There are very few men who cannot afford to give forty cents to aid the good cause by circulating a good Republican paper.

Try it, friends, try it for your neighbors. There is scarcely a neighborhood in the country in which from ten to twenty more weekly papers cannot be distributed to advantage; and a few thousand weekly papers read carefully from now to the election will do more good than tens of thousands of Congressional speeches.

RESTORATION OF THE UNION.

Two proclamations by the President appeared in our columns a day or two ago, announcing the ratification of the Fourteenth Constitutional Amendment by the States of South Carolina and Louisiana. The terms in which it pleased the President to convey this official notification, made obligatory on him by the laws, shows that the ratification, both in manner and substance, is contrary to his wishes and alien to the designs of the Democratic party, with which he has been acting for the last four years.

Nor does this fact stand alone as evidencing that the Democratic party is not so much concerned to have the Southern States restored to the Union, as to make sure, if possible, that the restoration shall be accomplished on such a basis as to give that party the political control of those States as fast as restored to their normal relations to the Government. Congress has already voted to restore a number of those States, and on every division each Democratic member of the Senate and House of Representatives has recorded his vote against restoration. If these Democratic votes could have availed, the restored States would still be under Provisional governments and subject to military supervision. The Democrats prefer it should be thus rather than incur the chances of having the Electoral Colleges of one or all of those States cast their suffrages for GRANT and COLFAX.

There are certainly two views of the question of Reconstruction; one, that of abstract right; the other, that of practical utility. The Democrats stand now where they stood all through the rebellion and long anterior thereto, upon the ground of inherent and inalienable State Rights; maintaining that the Southern Commonwealths did not exceed their reserved powers or constitutional prerogatives in anything they did or attempted to do, and hence, when forced back into the Union by a will they could not further resist, were at full liberty to demand exemption from all penalties and precautionary conditions. The Republicans, on the other hand, in approaching the work of reconstruction, retained the whole body of precedents established during the war, that the Confederate States, by the magnitude and vigor of their revolt acquired belligerent rights, were to be treated in many prime particulars as an independent power with which the government of the United States was at war, and being conquered was subject to the will of the conquerors in all matters relating to the tranquilizing of the country, the permanence of peace between the different sections, and the recognition of the just rights of all classes of citizens. It was to be expected that each of the political parties would hold, abstractly, to the interpretation of governmental authority which had guided its action during the war.

But it is not feasible to determine this question wholly in view of abstract principles. As soon as the war approached an end, President LINCOLN ignored the governments of the revolted Commonwealths, appointed Provisional Governors therein, ordered Constitutional Conventions, thus adding to the confusion of political relations which the rebellion and the setting up of the Confederate government had inaugurated. President JOHNSON followed up this policy vigorously, till Congress at length interposed by positive legislation and undertook to bring order out of the existing chaos.

In dealing practically with the restoration of the Southern States, the Democrats have constantly overlooked a fundamental difficulty lying athwart the application of their theories. This difficulty is brought up at once by inquiring whether South Carolina, for instance, shall be restored with the Constitution she had when she went out of the Union, or the Constitution she had when the war closed. The Constitution she had when LEE surrendered bound her to the fortunes of the Confederacy. No loyal citizen could entertain for one moment the proposition to bring her back with that instrument in force. The Constitution under which she went out of the Union, recognizing slavery, had ceased to be in harmony with the Federal Constitution. The idea of restoring it was inadmissible.

Besides, all the officers of the State had been changed by elections held during the war, and President JOHNSON'S Provisional Government scheme still further perplexed the case. Which set of officers should be recognized and restored? The Democrats did not pretend to solve this practical problem, but kept on clamoring that the status should be restored as it was before the outbreak.

The Republicans proposed to make short work, by remitting the task of reconstruction to the loyal citizens of the respective States, making it incumbent on them to conform their new constitutions to the National Constitution as it now is. This was a quick and effectual cut out of all embarrassments. In one way or another this requirement had to be met.

The Republican plan has taken effect, and the labor of reconstruction is about over under it. Practical men fail to see what is to be gained by going back and commencing the task over again. Who can tell, in that event, what mischances might arise? What delays occur? What disturbances be engendered? What fresh revolt incited? The country needs repose. Business men, of all sections, are agreed on this point. They concur in the pregnant words of GRANT, "Let us have peace."

THE XIVTH CONSTITUTIONAL ARTICLE.

The Constitutional Amendment known as Article XIV having been ratified by the requisite number (two-thirds) of the States, Congress yesterday passed a Joint Resolution declaratory to that effect, and making it the duty of the proper Executive department to announce officially the incorporation of the new provisions into the Constitution of the Republic.

The text of the XIVth article was printed in the GAZETTE a few days since. It will be remembered that its first section proclaims the citizenship, throughout the Republic, of all persons born or naturalized within its limits, which citizenship, with its equal privileges, immunities and protection, shall not be impaired or infringed without due process of law. The second section apportions representation in Congress according to numbers, but provides that any exclusion from the suffrage, under State laws, shall to the same extent diminish the basis of representation. The effect of this will be, should the rebel Southern whites accomplish their threats to strip the right of suffrage from the colored race, to reduce their representation in Congress in the same ratio. The third section excludes from the Federal service, civil or military, all rebels who shall have violated their official oaths to support the Constitution, but the exclusion may be removed by a two-thirds vote of Congress. The fourth section declares the inviolability of the Federal debt, and that the rebel debt shall be forever held illegal and void.

This Constitutional Amendment stands seriously in the way of the new Democratic-Rebel-Johnsonian programme of revolutionary violence, but BLAIR, FORREST & Co. will assail the Constitution as a whole, or in any of its parts, with equal readiness, and an additional section, more or less, will make less difference with their plans than with the ability of the loyal people to confute them.

As the Constitution now stands, the great Republican doctrine of the equality of men appears in no part of it more conspicuous than in this last addition to its text. The equality of citizenship and the equal right of representation, throughout the Republic, are herein for the first time proclaimed and made unalterable.

THE PRESIDENT'S CONFESSION.

In his message to the Senate, detailing his objections to the Electoral College resolution, President JOHNSON maintains that the revolted States have at all times been in the Union in such sense as to entitle them to participate in elections for President and Vice-President. What if the rebel States had insisted upon enjoying this right in 1864, in aid of their sympathizers throughout the loyal States? At that time no citizen who bore true allegiance to the Government would have listened to the suggestion for an instant. The only theory of the Government out of which it is possible for such a suggestion to arise, has no basis in fact, and tends to incalculable mischief.

But the President contradicts himself and overthrows his own doctrine. He contends that,

"When the rebellion terminated the several States that attempted to secede continued to be States in the Union, and ... that was required to enable them to resume their relations to the Union was that they should adopt such measures necessary to their practical restoration as States."

So there are measures necessary to be taken to accomplish practical restoration? That admission covers the whole ground. Conceding so much, the question necessarily comes up, What power shall decide upon the nature and extent of these essential measures?

The President says, the delinquent States; that is, the offenders shall decide what condonement they will make to the laws, and when and how they will render it. That confounds all the elementary ideas of public justice.

The President was once of a different opinion, and he absolutely crushed the governments of all the revolted States under the heel of military despotism. According to his present showing, he was a monstrous usurper, who ought to have been thrust headlong from the seat of power he disgraced.

As against the present position of the President the Republicans affirm that the national government, assailed by the rebels, and having conquered them, necessarily has the right of deciding what "measures are necessary to practical restoration."

While, then, we regard the President's message as bristling with revolutionary tendencies, and in complete accord with the menaces of a fresh outbreak proceeding from BLAIR and EWING, and most if not all of the Southern Democratic journals, we welcome his confession that it devolves on the rebel States, as a preliminary to any lawful participation in the government, to "adopt the measures necessary to their practical restoration as States." The loyal citizens of the republic do not mean they shall go out when they will, and come back as they please.

CHARTIERS VALLEY RAILWAY.

The negotiations, having reference to the completion of this important feeder for the business of Pittsburgh and of the railways connecting to the Eastward, have so far progressed towards a favorable consummation that we are able to announce that the work of construction will be soon taken in hand. The proposition from the Pennsylvania Central Company to complete and equip the road after a subscription of $360,000 should have been obtained, with suitable releases of the right of way from the people along the line, having been so nearly completed that the sum of $270,000 has been pledged, and the requisite releases secured, a conference was had yesterday, between the President of the Company, Mr. J. E. THOMPSON, and a committee of the citizens interested, resulting in a reference to the Solicitor of the Company, to examine the subscriptions and releases, with the clear and definite understanding that his favorable report should be followed by an immediate commencement of the work. The Committee are so well aware that the subscriptions are responsible, and the releases valid and sufficient, that none other than a favorable report can be anticipated, and they look upon the object of their labors as fully achieved. This auspicious result justifies our congratulations to our friends in the country and cities, to whose zealous and patient efforts this result is wholly due.

PERHAPS Governor BOWIE, of Maryland, in his speech at the Democratic ratification meeting the other day, revealed the secret of the warfare by his party upon the public credit, when he said:

"If he [Grant] comes [illegible] it will [illegible] carry on the most [illegible] history. [illegible] property but I would [illegible] the face of these [illegible] good purpose."

THE SECOND DEMOCRATIC REBELLION.

The new, or rather old Democratic platform of violence and civil war appears more clearly prominent the farther South you go. At Baltimore, HAMPTON appealed to the rebel soldiers to renew once more their devotion to the "lost cause" by supporting SEYMOUR and BLAIR. At Richmond, Gov. VANCE ratifies, with the declaration that these nominees will give to the Confederacy all it fought for. At Nashville, the Democratic Banner says that the election "involves all that is dear to the South in their political and governmental relations," and that "in the success of the Democratic nominees, the South recognizes its only chance for redemption." The Memphis Post stigmatizes a Ku klux parade, a few evenings previously in the streets of that city, as proof of the existence of a "standing rebel army, organized and ready to take the field." The indications of another Democratic rebellion in Tennessee are most threatening. At the Democratic ratification meeting in Washington, on the 18th, Gen. EWING declared that "unless the white population of the South recover possession of their governments at the next election, there will be an upheaval of civil war." We quote his speech in another column, as reported in the Democratic journals. In Mississippi, the rebels are calling upon HUMPHREYS, the rebel Governor under the late rebel Constitution, to order elections to be held under that instrument, and they declare themselves ready to fight, relying upon the Blair and Ewing Democracy of the North to help them. The New Orleans Crescent declares that the South must rule or ruin, approves the Blair programme and demands "one more trial for State rights." The Mobile Register says the Southern Democracy would soon fix up a government to suit them, if let alone by the Federal administration. WISE, of Virginia, supports the ticket because BLAIR, who had said what he did about setting up military over civil authority, had been put on it. The Mobile Register, again, supports SEYMOUR "because he is in favor of overthrowing the Reconstruction measures;" it sustains BLAIRS, quoting his letter, "because he occupied a position to which the South can have no possible objection, making, as he does, the overthrow of Reconstruction, the real and only issue in the contest." Said the Georgia rebel, TOOMBS, in a speech ratifying the nominations, at Atlanta, the other day:

"I will tell you another fact, which is enough for this time, that as the late war was produced by the defeated Democratic party in 1860, we shall never have peace until it is restored to it."

We might fill columns with these quotations from the utterances, in Democratic journals and speeches, of the rampant spirit of rebellion, now revived under the fostering agency of the New York Convention, but we must suspend them for the present, closing this article with the significant words in which the St. Louis Democrat brings the sense of immediate danger home to the convictions of its loyal readers. It says:

"Men of the free North, you must look this thing in the face. You cannot dodge it or escape consequences. If you are willing, through a full of years of blood and sacrifice, it is not enough of you get the rebels on their devices. It is not enough. For here in all by following the loss of your own liberty, the annihilation of your own prosperity, the retrogression of a hundred years of republican progress, the ridicule of the shades of the world. Your fall will rock the whole of Europe, and be felt to the extremity of the orient. Will you deserve your dishonor?"

ISRAELITE VOTERS in this country are not inclined to be swayed by the appeals of politicians, to give their suffrages as a people exclusively to one party or the other. Some of them, who were at first dissatisfied with the celebrated order issued by Gen. GRANT during the war, have come to reflect, as suggested by the learned Dr. ADLER, of Chicago, that GRANT is only technically responsible for an order which, like most others emanating from the Generals actively in command in the field, was prepared by his subordinates, in whom he usually placed confidence, and was signed by him without critical examination. And hence these citizens acquit Gen. GRANT, personally, of any intention to cast unmerited imputations upon the Jewish people. Other Israelites again charge the New York Democratic Convention "with insulting the Jews and yielding to unmeaning hypocrisy by calling upon a minister to open their National Convention with a prayer, in which the blessing of God through Christ was invoked upon the deliberations." The Eclectic, a Jewish journal of Cincinnati, alluding to this, and to GRANT'S order, says:

"[illegible] the Israelite ponder over this, and, if they can, flatter themselves less a used by [illegible] in a country [illegible] —[illegible] humbug, [illegible] sensitive representatives of the reactionary Democracy—never!"

Sensible voters, among that people, will have little difficulty in concluding that their suffrage should be given next November as heretofore, rather according to their habitual preferences, the sentiments which have always controlled their political action, than in obedience to the suggestions of any temporary and probably unjust electioneering accusations.

THE Democracy of Louisville, Ky., ratified Seymour and Blair on Tuesday evening by a torchlight procession and speeches. The principal speakers were rebel General Humphrey Marshall and Ex-Governor Bramlette. Marshall said this was his first speech since the downfall of the confederacy. "But here I am, in the old Democratic party, and s'help me God, may I never be anywhere else." Of course, in such a procession, portraits of Jefferson Davis, R. E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson figure conspicuously, so says the Courier, but it makes no mention of the Stars and Stripes, from which we infer that our national banner had no place in the procession.

THE "popularity" of Seymour is shown by the fact that whenever he came before the people for office he invariably ran behind his ticket. In 1850 he was 3,600 behind; in 1852 he was from 1,000 to 2,000 behind; in 1854 the ticket was cut to pieces by the divisions in the Democratic party, and no comparison can be made, in 1862 he again fell slightly behind his ticket; in 1864 he was behind every person on the ticket.

A BOY of a dozen years in Albion, the other week, while drawing a log in swimming it across a river, found his foot entangled in the rope, and was drawn under the water. He succeeded in getting his head above water, and called for help, but was drowned before assistance could reach him.

THE "FIGHTING BOYS IN BLUE."

A meeting of this organization in Indiana last week, adopted among others the following resolution:

"That we can never forget that constant and malignant hatred manifested by this same Copperhead party against the Union cause and the 'fighting boys in blue,' who were battling for the cause in the field—the party that proclaimed, through its leaders, that 'Southern defeat gave them no joy, and Northern disasters no sorrow'—the party that attempted to disgrace us with the opprobrious names of 'hirelings,' 'Hessians,' and 'Lincoln dogs'—the party that discouraged enlistments, encouraged desertion, opposed the enforcement of the draft, and by its infamous teachings, caused the murder of enrolled officers, the destruction of the property of loyal citizens, and created a reign of terror at the threshold of our homes—the party that discredited greenbacks, cried down the bonds, and endeavored to destroy the financial credit of the nation—the party that organized a treasonable and dangerous conspiracy, having for its object, by the most damnable means known in the annals of crime, the overthrow of the Government of our State, and the destruction of the national authority in the Northwest—the party that proclaimed, 'Not another man or another dollar toward suppressing the rebellion, and during the whole struggle prided itself upon withholding contributions from our sick and wounded soldiers and sailors, and refusing to relieve the sufferings of their wives and children."

The Indiana Democracy Bolt.

The Tipton Times, the most influential Democratic paper in the Eighth Congressional District of Indiana, contains the following:

"Here we come. The New York infamy has convinced us of the necessity of taking our stand with the workingmen's party, the Tin-Bucket Brigade. Our unfaithful and infamous delegates to the New York Convention sold us for Wall street gold, and we propose knowing how much we brought—knowing what white men are worth in the market. Seven or eight of our delegates were faithful to their trust. The others have rendered themselves infamous for all time to come. At the very time when Indiana, if it had remained true, could have run up Pendleton's vote to seven more than a majority, one G. N. Fitch of Logansport, split the delegation and took off nine and one-half votes of the thirteen. Financially we can not endure him, but politically he is dead and damned. We appeal to you, the people, irrespective of party, who do not propose that yourselves and your posterity, to the latest generation, shall be the dupes and slaves of the bondholders, to rally with us around the workingmen's banner and repudiate and spit upon all such rascality."

THE issue between the Democratic and the Republican parties, to be determined by the people next November, is thus distinctly and graphically set forth by John A. Griswold, the Republican candidate for Governor of New York, extracted from one of his recent speeches:

"The war has ceased; but those who opposed us on the field then are now trying in another arena to achieve by artifice what they failed to secure by years of war. It is true we are no longer fighting rebels in the field, but it is none the less true that no period in the history of our country has been more momentous than is the present. But the question before us is whether the fruits of victory won by thousands whom we had sent to the war, and who have gone down to their graves, are to be lost now, or whether loyal people will see to it that they are made secure for the future."

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.

When the system is once affected it will not rally of its own accord; it needs help it must be strengthened and invigorated; this is especially the case when the

KIDNEYS, BLADDER OR URINARY ORGANS

Are affected. For immediate relief and permanent cure,

DR. SARGENT'S

Diuretic or Backache Pills

Are a perfectly safe and reliable specific. This well known remedy has effected a large number of speedy and reasonable cures, and have never failed to give relief when taken according to directions.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Are purely vegetable, and contain no mercury or calomel. They do not exhaust the system, but on the contrary they act as a tonic, imparting new tone and vigor to the organs and strengthening the whole body. These Pills have stood the test of thirty-five years, and are still gaining in popularity.

DISASTER FOLLOWS NEGLECT.

Whoever feels the premonitory symptoms of sickness should remember that to add the agony of self-reproach to the pangs of ill ease to remember that they might have been prevented.

Languor, debility and low spirits are often the precursors of terrible disorders. They indicate an immediate necessity for a tonic, and the best tonic in existence is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Sick headache, pain in the right side, and yellowness of the whites of the eyes are unmistakable symptoms of an approaching bilious attack, and, in order to ward it off, common prudence dictates the propriety of resorting to the most efficacious of all anti-bilious preparations—HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Flatulence, nausea, oppression after eating, irregularity of the bowels, and a distaste for exertion, denote a disordered state of the stomach, which, if neglected, is sure to culminate in chronic dyspepsia, but which may be relieved in a few hours, and entirely cured in a few days, by taking half a wineglass full of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS at regular intervals. All physicians admit that innumerable lives are sacrificed every year that might have been saved by precautionary medication. Remember this is one of the principal uses of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is to put the system in a condition to resist disease. Recruits and restores the wasting strength, and is, therefore, especially needed during the season when intense heat makes such heavy and constant drafts on the vital principle.

CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KEYSER: I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases, which finally ended in a terrible fistula, which I had been advised to "let alone," on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might fasten it on my lungs. I knew that the peculiar mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the suddenness of the cure and the immediate check to the discharge, which I believed was a salutary provision of nature to get rid of some morbid condition of the system. I feel perfectly satisfied that your method of treatment, purifying the system, and local applications to the fistulous [illegible] are being rapidly, without cutting, curing me, and I am happy to report [illegible] which [illegible] will, under your [illegible] soon be restored to perfect health.

A Picture for Patriots to Ponder.

The Chairman of the Tammany Convention at the time Horatio Seymour was nominated, was the rebel General Price, of Missouri, whose State never pretended to secede from the Union. Ex-Governor Vance—the leader of the North Carolina delegation, which cast its first vote for Seymour, and hastening to follow Ohio's lead, returned to its first love—declared during the war "that he was going to fight the Yankees until hell was frozen over, and then he would fight them on the ice." He subsequently addressed the rebel soldiers in the trenches, and urged them to "pile hell so full of Yankees that their feet would stick out of the windows."

Is it at all surprising that the nominations have fallen stillborn upon the Northern Democracy? In spite of the "gasconade" of their newspapers, they do not fail to see that Lee's prediction has been verified, and the late insurgents have recaptured the Democratic party.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, July 21, 1868.

Gold has fluctuated more then for some time, opening at 142⅝, advancing to 143¼, declining to 142¾, and closing firm at 143⅛. Gold can be loaned now flat instead of paying from 4 to 4½ per cent. for carrying, although it may be expected that gold will recede a little from present quotations, yet it should be borne in mind that there is no exchange coming on the market before next October and meanwhile gold has to be shipped, and consequently gold must remain high and firm, and may advance in the meantime to 150.

Government bonds are a trifle better than last night, but there is no activity, and an entire absence of any investment demand, but on the other hand, so long as business remains dull and money plenty, few persons feel disposed to sell without finding a suitable investment again. The price of governments will much depend on the price of gold, and should the latter advance, the former will follow in the same proportion.

Stocks are dull, but slightly higher for the western shares; the eastern shares are all stationary. Express stocks are firmer, and in better demand.

Money is easy, but business is unchanged.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 142¾; 1881 bonds, 115; 5-20s, 1862, 114¼; 1864 do, 111¼; 1865 do, 112¼; new, 1865 and 1867, 109; Ten Forties, 108¼; Seven Thirties, 109.

New York Central, 133⅞; Erie, 68½; Michigan Southern, 91¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 87½; Northwestern, common, 82¼; Preferred, 83½; Chicago & Rock Island, 107½; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 110⅝; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 24¼; Merchants Union Express, 24; Western Union Telegraph, 35¼; Corydon, 25; Quicksilver, 23¾; Quartz Hill, 1,15.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, July 21, 1868.

The general markets continue dull and depressed, with little or nothing doing outside of the regular every day petty operations. As there is an almost entire absence of anything like a speculative feeling, we have but very few "round lot" transactions to report, and while some few articles are a shade higher in consequence of a temporary scarcity, as a general thing, there are no important changes in values.

The weather continues oppressively hot, which, of course, tends very much towards retarding business, and while it is all that could be desired for ripening Wheat, Rye, Oats and Barley, Corn and Potatoes, and garden vegetables generally, are beginning to want rain badly. Considerable rain is reported west of here within the past few days, and we are in hopes that we will have some here before many days elapse.

BUTTER—The receipts of prime fresh Butter are very light, and with an improved demand, prices are tending upward, we now quote at 25 to 27.

EGGS—In rather better demand, and firmer, and we now quote at 21 to 22c.

CHEESE—Unchanged at 13 to 14 for Western Reserve and Hamburg: 15 to 16 for Ohio Factory, and 18 to 20 for Sweitzer.

HAY—Continues scarce, firm and higher. Sales of 29 loads of new at Allegheny Diamond Scales at $22 to $23, and prime old was quoted at $32 to $33,

SALT—Is dull and nominally unchanged at $1,75 to $1,80 to the trade, and $2 for small lots in store.

SEEDS—There is some inquiry for Flaxseed but the market is enterely bare.

GRAIN—New Wheat is arriving pretty freely, though the demand seems to keep up to the supply, and the marke may be quoted steady at $2,20 to $2,25, that is for immediate delivery. Future deliveries, will not bring as much by 10 to 15 cts per bushel, which indicates a lower price. Corn is quiet and unchanged at $1,05 to $1,08 for mixed and prime Yellow. Rye is nominal at $1,45 to $1,50. Oats firmer but not quotably higher; 78 to 80, on track, and in elevator. No movement in Barley as yet nor is it likely that there will be until the new crop begins to move.

MILL FEED—The demand is rather better, but prices are unchanged. Sales of Middlings at $1,90 to $2, and Bran at $1,15 to $1,20.

POTATOES—Steady, and in good demand, with sales at $1,50 to $1,75 per bushel to the trade as to quality.

GREEN APPLES—Scarce and in fair demand with sales at $5 to $7 per bbl, as to quality.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is in steady demand at 13½ to 13¾c for Shoulders; 16c to 16¼ for Ribbed, and 18 to 18¼ for Clear Sides, and 20½ to 21c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard, 18¼ to 18¼c. Dried Beef, 21 to 21½c. Mess Pork, $28,50 to $29.

LARD OIL—Is reported steady at $1,18 to $1,20 for No. 2, and $1,40 for No. 1.

LIME—Sales reported at $2 per bbl.

PIG LEAD—Sales at 10½c.

DRIED FRUIT—The demand is exceedingly light, and the market is very dull: the supply is large, though mostly of an inferior quality.

FLOUR—The market continues dull and weak, though prices are without quotable change. Spring Wheat brands are quoted at $10 to $10,50 for good to choice, and $10,75 for fancy Minnesota. Winter Wheat Flour has declined to $10,75 to $11; fancy brands, $12 to $13. Rye Flour, $8,50 to $9 per cwt.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, July 21, 1868.

CRUDE—It is an old and true saying that one extreme generally follows another. Last week the sales were of oil were larger, probably, than during any preceeding week this year—in two days alone the transactions aggregating seventy thousand barrels. This week, thus far, the sales do not much exceed five thousand barrels, and notwithstanding there are offers to sell at a reduction, their seems to be no buyers, and all are agreed that the trade has not been in such a stagnant condition for a considerable length of time. To-day there were offers to sell spot oil at 14, while so far as we could learn 13½ was the best bid that could be obtained: there was a sale of a thousand each for October and November at 13½. It is but proper to remark, however, that the pressure to sell is not so very strong, as holders generally entertain the opinion that a reaction and better prices will take place, sooner or later, and that all they have to do is to hold on.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil is also exceedingly quiet, and while the general tone of the trade is weakness, as yet, the decline has not been as large as might have been expected under existing circumstances, though there is no disputing the fact that buyers are clamoring for concessions. If there was the same pressure to sell now that there was to buy last week, the decline, without doubt, would have been much greater; as it is, our refiners are pretty well sold up for the early months, and they do not care to sell for the late months at present prices. There was but a single sale reported, 500 bbls for the last half of August at 34¾c. Spot or July oil may be quoted nominally at 34¼ to 34½c; and the last five months at 34½c. One very important feature connected with the oil business just now lies in the fact that a better class of buyers are in the market, from which it is fair to infer, that the majority of the "shysters" have, by force of circumstances, been compelled to retire, and the sooner they are all compelled to quit, the better for the trade.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil reported to-day were as follows:

PITTSBURGH WOOL MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, July 21, 1868.

The wool market—the last week has been very dull, and owing to the harvest the receipts by wagon have not been large. The advices from the Eastern market, indicate still lower prices, and it seems that we have not yet touched bottom. During the past week in New York sales were made of large amounts of good Ohio wool, about ¾ blood in quality and above, at 43 to 45c; and in Boston the same descriptions were sold at 42 to 45. Notwithstanding buyers have been careful and thought they were buying wool low, yet it is plain that no margin of profit will be realized by shippers. In the fine Wool sections of Washington, Allegheny and adjoining counties, not much has been done, and buyers are totally indifferent about purchasing unless they can make selections of good, clean, fine Wools at 40c, with a corresponding reduction for the heavy and badly conditioned lots. We quote coarse fleece at 35c; medium fleece, 37 to 38c, and fine wool, 38 to 40c.

Chicago Market.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

CHICAGO, July 21.—Flour firmer; running brands in good demand. Wheat in light demand and almost nominal; sales confined to No. 2 at $1,72a1,74, closing with buyers at $1,73, and sellers at $1,74; since 'Change, sales of No. 2 at $1,73. Corn in good demand and ¼a½c higher; sales No. 1 at 92¾a93¼c; No. 2 at 91¼a92c, and rejected at 84a85c, closing steady at 92¾a92¾; this afternoon No. 1 dull at 91¾c. Oats scarce, firmer and 1½a2c higher; sales at 68a68½c, closing steady at 68c. Rye in fair request at $1,15a1,20 for old and new No. 1 in store. Barley quiet; sales sample lots at $1,20 on track. Provisions quiet. Mess Pork sold at $28,00a28,50. Dry salted Shoulders, 11¼c. Mess Beef, $18,00. Lard, 17c. Freights dull: 3c on corn to Buffalo. Receipts for past 24 hours—2,131 bbls flour, 5,352 bus wheat, 59,552 bus corn, 6,346 bus oats, 1,017 hogs. Shipments—4,931 barrels flour, 21,200 bus wheat, 94,143 bus corn, 6,670 bus oats, 1,177 hogs.

New York Dry Goods Market.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, July 21.—There is a fair demand for seasonable goods, although the trade will not open fully before the 1st of August. Prices meantime are firm and the tendency is towards hardening, the rates for heavy brown sheetings being 17a18½; Printing Cloth 9¼ for standards and 13½a14½ for standard makes of prints.

St. Louis Cattle Market.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ST. LOUIS, July 21.—Cattle; there is a good local demand, and sales were made of fair to choice at $5,50a6,75. Sheep are unchanged, and sales were made of fair to choice at $3,50a5. Lambs are held at $2,50 a3,24.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

The Suez Canal.

Fifteen years ago a Frenchman was dining at the houses of official personages about Paris and London, and industriously unfolding a gigantic scheme, which his hosts politely but generally laughed at—for the man was an enthusiast, a monomaniac. He at last, however, secured an attentive hearing, and indefinite but elementary promises of encouragement—not from a minister or a banker, who were all too wise, but from the sovereign of the French. The latter, when a young man, twenty years before, had published a book upon the feasibility of connecting, through the Isthmus of Darien, the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. Our Frenchman plodded, financiered and fought a powerful antagonism at home, in Egypt and elsewhere, and the other day, I went to see his panorama. It was rather the panorama of his works, which, on this occasion, he explained himself, and what I heard and saw gave me some idea of the work's genius and perseverance, and a conception of his magnificent achievement.

The man is an old acquaintance, M. Ferdinand de Lesseps, a quiet, unassuming person, with a brain and energy rarely encountered in the world, and the scheme and panorama are the Suez Canal.

Nearly fifteen years have been required to reach a point M de Lesseps expected to have attained by 1863-4, but, through all his delays and disappointments, one good friend stood by him; a friend worth having, the Emperor. At a meeting of the shareholders in the Suez Canal Company, held the first of June, in Paris, M. de Lesseps announced the termination of the project for the month of October, 1869 He added that the Company had fifty-eight millions of francs on hand, and that a loan, by means of bonds, of one hundred millions would suffice for expenses to the end of the undertaking. The Company had received, up to the present time, 346 millions of francs, of which all, but the above mentioned fifty-eight millions, have been spent upon the Canal. From the first of June, 1867, to the fifteenth of April, 1868, one thousand ships, measuring 382,000 tons, had entered Port Said against 140,000 tons the previous year.

The termination of this monstrous enterprise, now so near at hand, will be a great scientific and peaceful victory for France, the Emperor and M. de Lesseps. Palmerston, sustained by the first amongst English engineers, Robert Stephenson, pronounced the project absurd and even impracticable. He should have lived to see the great service rendered to the Abyssinian expedition by the Canal that he denounced, already three-quarters done. In the East, France will become more than ever the rival of England; and with Russia and America there, the old British monopoly will be a thing of history.

The Isthmus of Suez changes in aspect daily. He who saw it six months since could hardly recognize it to-day. Port Said, the Mediterranean entrance to the Canal, in 1862 was a bank of sand. It contains at present 10,090 souls, with hotels, bazaars, cafés, etc., and has one of the best harbors on the coast; two years from now when the Canal will be in operation, the city of Port Said will have become a noted seaport. The water transit is already open from Port Said to Ismailia, about sixty miles. The latter, another town which owes its being to the cutting of the Isthmus, is situated upon the border of Lake Timsah, about half way from Port Said to the city of Suez, the Red Sea termination of the Canal. It has 4,000 inhabitants; the Arabs on one side, the Greeks on another, and the employés of the Canal Company between them.

Suez is an old Arab place which for years has striven to grow up an European city, and, thanks also to the Canal, is now fast being transformed into one. It is a real tower of Babel to-day, with its mixture of populations, travellers, sojourners, and those engaged upon the mammoth work. French, Italians, Greeks, Maltese, Dalmatians, Montenegrians, etc., throng the streets and bazaars, and English, Germans and Americans the hotels. Then the pilgrims or the natives, who are Arabs or Turks, Fellahs or Nubians, comprise all shades and types of the Asiatic, and they are seen piled up against the house-sides on the public way, or jumbled into the railway wagons like bags of flour or swarming like ants amongst their little pointed tents out on the desert plain.—Boston Post.

Brave Act of an Archbishop.

Victor Hugo has in his study at Hauteville, on the Isle of Guernsey, a crayon sketch of a bishop with a cross, which he has drawn himself, and under which he has written the following words: "Wooden cross, golden bishop; golden cross, wooden bishop." He would doubtless consider the noble Archbishop of Auch a "golden" bishop. The other day there was a destructive conflagration at Auch. From one of the burning houses burst forth cries, "Save us, save us!" Heart-rending were the screams of a mother, "Save my child!" The Archbishop, who had hitherto assisted the firemen at the engines, stepped forth and shouted out, "I will give twenty-five gold pieces to him who saves the mother and her child!". Several men hastened into the flames, but started back again. The Archbishop repeated his offer, but to no purpose. He then took a blanket, dipped it into a pail of water, wrapped it around his body, and climbed the ladder leading to the burning room. The bystanders fell on their knees, their eyes steadily fixed on the Archbishop. He succeeded in reaching the window, and soon after re appeared, carrying the mother and her child Upon reaching the ground below, he tore the half-burned blanket from his shoulders, and thanked God on his knees for the success of his efforts. He then stepped to the poor mother and said: "My good woman, I have offered twenty five gold pieces to him who would save you; I have earned that sum myself and will give it to you."

The Mexican authorities are carrying matters with a pretty high hand, if we may believe the story of a correspondent of the New York Herald He says that the daughter of an American gentleman recently fell in love with an obscure Mexican official, who is represented to be ignorant, and without the means of supporting a wife. These circumstances, together with the extreme youth of the girl (sixteen years,) seemed to justify the father in breaking up the intimacy. The Mexican made a formal demand for the surrender of the young lady which was peremptorily refused. He then invoked the aid of the Government, and accompanied by a file of soldiers he returned to the house and forcibly took away from the father his only daughter. The ill-assorted marriage was consummated, and the parent is left without redress. Such is Mexican justice.

The Manchester Mirror states that the "snake town," as many farmers call it, is more abundant this year than the oldest inhabitant in New Hampshire ever knew. It is a white loam, at the joints of grass, and in it is concealed something, in embryo state, that is considered the young grasshoppers. The microscope reveals its outlines, and shows that the general idea about it is correct. If so, in a short time the fields will literally swarm with grasshoppers.

The Prosecuting Attorney in the celebrated Chorinsky trial at Munich was no other than Dr. Wulfert, who, in 1848, played quite a role in the Lola Montez excitement, and at that time was ungallant enough to box the ears of the mistress of King Louis the First. Wulfert was at that time a student at the University of Munich, and one day had a difficulty with a member of the Allemania, a society of students who had been shameless enough to place themselves under the protection of the so-called Countess of Landsfeldt. Wulfert grasped the arm of Lola's friend, who drew a poniard against him. Lola, who was present, raised her riding whip and threatened to strike him in the face. Wulfert, perfectly beside himself, rushed at Lola and boxed her ears, and shouted to the policeman who hastened to the scene of difficulty, "Arrest that Spanish harlot!" They did not do so, but informed Wulfert that he would be arrested if he did not leave Munich. He immediately fled the city, and his friends thereupon serenaded Lola with the most horrible charivari that ever was heard at Munich. This charivari opened the revolution which terminated in the abdication of King Louis the First. King Maximilian afterwards appointed Wulfert Prosecuting Attorney.

Napoleon I. excited the sharpest censure from his enemies in England, on account of the system of wholesale plunder by which the galleries of the Louvre were filled with the works of art taken from the private collections in Italy, There may be a difference in the principle involved when the sufferer belongs to a semi-civilized nation; at all events no comments are made in the English papers upon the way in which Napier's army stripped Magdala. A writer upon this subject says: "Not only was every visible ornament of the King's person and throne snatched by a plundering soldiery, but the chalices and censers were taken from the church altars; crosses were torn away, to be exposed for sale in order to swell the volume of prize money; mule loads of books, manuscripts of course, were carried off—all of them objects of peculiar reverence among the people to whose history and religion they severally belong; and pictures were seized and borne away, with no more respect than if they were the silver and golden cups that had just gone after a like fashion. The scene is described as one of really barbaric spoliation."

The solar eclipse that is to take place on the 18th proximo will be total. Special expeditions of astronomers and photographers are to be sent out by the Governments of Great Britain, France, Austria, Germany and Italy, to observe and record the important phenomenon, which is to be of nearly seven minutes' duration. As it will be visible in its totality only from the portions of the surface of our globe adjacent to the equator, the various expeditions will have to undergo the hard-ships of a summer journey to tropical regions. Most of them are already under way. At Aden, at the mouth of the Red Sea, where the eclipse will be observable at sunrise, as the most convenient point from Europe, the greater number of these special scientific envoys will congregate. In the course of the day the total eclipse will be visible in India, on the islands of Borneo and Celebes, the Spice Islands, and toward sunset in New Guiana. In all of these localities careful observations are expected to be made.

Management of Gold Fish.—Gold fish may be kept ten or twelve years in vessels (their average period of existence) by the following precautions: 1. Allow not more than one fish to a quart of water, whether spring or river water, and change it daily in summer, every other day in winter. 2. Use deep rather than shallow vessels with small pebbles at the bottom (to be kept clean), and keep them in the shade, and in a cool part of the room. 3. Use a small net rather than the hand while changing the water. 4. Feed them with cracker, yolk of egg, lettuce, flies, etc., rather than with bread, and then only every third or fourth day, and but little at a time. 5. Do not feed them at all from November to the end of February, and but little during the three following months.

Among the most interesting and useful objects exhibited at the late Exposition in Paris, was a netting machine of Jounnin, by means of which a net of any dimension, and of any size of mesh and thread, can be made at much less cost than by hand. Two threads are used in the netting, one forming a simple loop around and through which the other thread passes. The machine is said to work very well, and is driven by steam, attended by one woman, and with a mesh of one and three-quarter inch diameter, and a web of four feet in width, it will furnish a length of eighty feet per hour. For manufacturing very cheaply large seines, and for protecting fruit from birds, etc., this apparatus is very well adapted. The cost of a machine is about $250.

The Maryland fruit crop is pronounced almost an entire failure by the Baltimore Gazette. The peach crop will not be one-twentieth part as large as it was last year, and in Dorchester, Talbot and Caroline counties, the soils of which are peculiarly adapted to the production of that fruit, and whose orchards have usually yielded immense crops, there will not be enough for home consumption. The apple crop will also be very far short of the average. The small fruits, also, such as cherries, plums and damsons, are a failure.

Important to Photographers.—The Hon. A. M. Stout, Acting Commissioner of Patents, has had pending before him an application for the extension of letters patent, granted to the late James A. Cutting, July 11th, 1854, for the use of bromide in combination with collodion for photographic purposes. The case was argued by counsel before the Commissioner last week, and after a careful and thorough examination by him, he announced his decision on Wednesday last, against granting the extension,

MEDICAL.

A GREAT CURE OF ASTHMA.

I feel myself under obligations to you, as well as a duty I owe to others who have been like sufferers with myself, in order that they may know where they can get cured. I had been subject to violent, continued attacks of ASTHMA for more than six years, and had been to great expense and to various medical men of experience without obtaining any permanent relief, or relieved at all. I was so bad that I never knew what it was to be free from the disease. I had to sit up in bed every night for weeks and weeks, without any prospect or hope of cure. My condition was such that I felt like a burthen, and when I got an attack I felt in danger of suffocating every moment. So terrible had been my suffering that my mother says that she has seen me so near suffocation that I was nearly black in the face from the desperate efforts made to get breath. In the cold winter nights, many a night, with the doors and windows of the house thrown wide open, in order to hunter the apparent danger of strangulation. In this condition, on the 13th of October, 1866, having heard of DR. KEYSER'S skill in curing this disease, I called on him, in company with my husband, Joseph Meyers, but I must confess with a great deal of doubt as to effecting a permanent cure. DR. KEYSER examined me carefully, and my lungs all over, with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that with care I would get well. I persevered with his medicines for over a year, and am to-day in vigorous health, and totally FREE FROM THE ASTHMA, and its terribly disagreeable attendants. I have had, once in a while, a slight attack of the disease, but I regard my health as entirely re established, and if I do have any attack, a few doses of the Doctor's medicine immediately relieves cannot feel too thankful for the exemption from a disease which used to cost me whole weeks and months of loss of sleep, besides suffering which none but those who are subject to this disease can fully appreciate or describe.

NANCY MEYERS,
MARY MOUNT JOY, (her mother,)
GEORGIANA FISHER.

Birmingham, Dec. 9 1867.

The case of Mrs. Meyers, recited above, is one of more than ordinary importance, because of the violence of the attacks, their continued length, and the great prostration of all the vital powers attending the disease. Any one who knew her during the time she was a sufferer from the disease of which she was cured, and will look at her now, the very picture of robust health, cannot but admit that the cure is one of more than ordinary character, inasmuch as we hear of Asthma every day of our lives, being a disease of an incurable nature. Let those who doubt investigate for themselves.

Deafness, Hard Hearing, Discharges from the Ear, Polypus of the Ear, Catarrh, Ozena, Blind Eyes, Inflamed Eyes, and every species of Sore Eyes and Ears successfully Treated by Dr. Keyser, No. 120 Penn Street.

SIGHT RESTORED.

The case to which we alluded some weeks ago, of Christiana Fisher, of Beaver county, is now entirely confirmed by the appearance of Miss Fisher herself, who to day called on DR. KEYSER in person, to thank him for his skill in restoring her to SIGHT. Miss Fisher has been nearly blind for four months. She was so blind that she could not distinguish any object so as to make out what it was. The case is remarkable, as hundreds of cases like her's are doomed to never ending darkness, on the flimsy pretext that there is no cure, and nothing can be done. She was under DR. KEYSER'S treatment for two months, and to those she applied to him, through her father, Simon P. Fisher, with whom we were entertained of her ever getting her sight. Her case is well known in the neighborhood where she resides, and has been regarded as one of extraordinary recovery. We, the undersigned, know of the cure of Miss Fisher, and bear willing testimony to the fact above stated.

The case above referred to was entirely cured by medicines to purify the blood, and it is witnessed by scores of persons who have known Miss Fisher, and have a knowledge of her total restoration to health and the recovery of her sight, as the accompanying letter of her brother sets forth:

DR. KEYSER This is the list of names that I have to your advertisement of the cure of my sister, Christiana Fisher They were all willing to put their names down, and were very much astonished to see that you brought her sight so soon. My mother sends her compliments to you; he says "you are one of the greatest men in the world." She says if we had not come across you she believes her child would not be living at this time We all join in sending our love and respects to you.

PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, RESULTING FROM PLEURISY, CURED.

Statement of GEORGE FORD, carpenter, of No. 16 Sampson street, Allegheny City:

I took a violent attack of pleurisy, in May, 1866, while I was with a cough lasting all summer, wearing away my strength and gradually undermining my health. During this illness of pleurisy I had several physicians of the highest reputation in this city. After I had partially recovered from the pleurisy, I was advised to go into the country, which I did, and when there I called in a doctor, who told me my lungs were affected, and that if something were not done soon I would die of CONSUMPTION. I suggested to him this time until about the middle of June, my cough and lung disease rapidly growing worse, and I weaker every day, and about despairing of ever getting well in this world of the good cure, not knowing the general belief of the incurability of Consumption, and having read of cures made by DR. KEYSER, and seeing his advertisement in the newspapers, I was induced to call on the Doctor at his office 120 Penn street, and had him examine my lungs with his "LUNG SOUND." He told me the upper portion of my left lung was very much diseased, but he thought with great care in the observances in the use of his medicine, I would get well. At the time I called on DR. KEYSER my cough was over one hundred and thirty beats a minute, and I was constantly prostrated, and had to cough night and day. I commenced the Doctor's treatment in October, with a feeble, broken constitution, and continued it faithfully until the present time. The Doctor's medicines helped me from the very start, and I could gradually feel my strength coming back, and my cough and expectoration decreasing. I have now got well to all intents, and consider myself cured, as the coughing of my lung has ceased, and my general health is in every way good. All my relatives and friends know of the advanced stage of my disease and my extraordinary recovery. One of the medicines given me by DR. KEYSER was a medicine called LUNG CURE, which I took in connection with the other treatment.

GEORGE FORD.

Pittsburgh, March 30, 1868.

ANOTHER CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

Statement of John G. Wigham, of Turtle Creek, Allegheny county:

I was discharged from the United States army in January, 1866, on account of a wound in the head, from a shell, and a disease which the army physicians pronounced CONSUMPTION. I had a terrible cough, and in a way in strength and flesh, and was unable to do anything. Shortly after my return from the army, I made application to a physician of my neighborhood, and afterwards to another in Pittsburgh of high reputation, but neither that I used faithfully for five months, without any benefit whatever, but rather grew worse, and I waned in flesh and strength every day. In August, 1866, my mother took me to DR. KEYSER, of 120 Penn street, whose skill in such cases, the nine had been highly spoken of, and put myself under his treatment. The Doctor examined my lungs very carefully with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that my left lung was badly diseased at the upper part, but if I was careful he thought he could cure me by following his directions closely, which I did from that day to this. I gradually improved under DR. KEYSER'S medicines from the first week I commenced to take them, and my general health has improved, and my cough has gone entirely away, and where I gained one, has become full and strong and free from pain. I can now do a full day's work, and take great pleasure in giving my testimony in favor of DR. KEYSER'S treatment and medicines.

Alleged Perjury.—Wm. McMillan, Martha McMillan, and Martha McLaughlin, charged with perjury on oath of M. Campbell, had a hearing before Alderman Mullen yesterday. Several witnesses were examined, but there being no evidence to substantiate the charge the case was dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor.

Assault and Battery.—Fred. Naff made information before Justice Heisel, of East Birmingham, yesterday, charging Jacob Mercer with assault and battery. He alleges that the accused knocked him down and kicked him. A warrant was issued. Mercer arrested and taken to the Justice's office, where the case was compromised.

Twenty-Fourth District.—The Conferees of the Twenty-fourth Congressional District met at the Monongahela House, yesterday, pursuant to adjournment, and remained in session all afternoon and evening, when they adjourned to meet this morning at ten o'clock. From what we can learn it is not probable that they will make any nomination to-day.

Another Victim.—Yesterday afternoon the police picked up a man in Diamond alley who had received a sunstroke. He was conveyed to the Homeopathic Hospital and every attention rendered, but at last accounts he was very low. It was ascertained from his daughter who accompanied him that he was a dealer in produce from Sewickley, named Stocker.

Ferocious Dog.—Louisa Ihrig made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging George F. Jones with keeping a ferocious dog. The parties reside in the vicinity of Moor's brick yard in the Thirteenth ward. The prosecutrix alleges that the dog is a savage brute, and that it bit her little daughter. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

Difficulty Among Coopers.—James McKernan and Louis Hahn, two coopers, employed at a shop on Seventh street, got into a little difficulty yesterday, in which Kernan felt himself worsted, and made information against Hahn for assault and battery, Hahn was arrested on a warrant from Alderman McMasters and held in three hundred dollars bail for a hearing on Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

Domestic Infelicity.—Elizabeth Babst, residing in the Third ward, Allegheny, made information yesterday before Alderman Mullen against her husband Jos. Babst for surety of the peace and aggravated assault and battery. She alleges that Joseph made dangerous threats against her, for which she complained, which so enraged her fond matrimonial partner that he knocked her down, kicked, choked and otherwise abused her, and also threatened to beat her brains out. A warrant was issued.

Larceny as Bailee.—Capt. John Travis made information yesterday before Alderman Strain, against Daniel S. Culver for larceny as bailee. The Captain states that he and Culver went into an arrangement to get up a billiard entertainment, each party to have an equal share of the profits. He alleges that Culver received twenty-two dollars' worth of tickets which he sold and pocketed the proceeds, refusing to turn them over into the general fund. The accused was arrested and held for Court in the sum of $300.

Suicide at Dixmont.—We learned last evening that an inmate of Dixmont Insane Hospital, a lady whose husband and children reside in West Virginia, committed suicide a few days ago by hanging herself with a rope formed of her bed clothes. The case is a peculiarly distressing one, as the victim belonged to a highly respectable family, and her insanity was caused by over-exertion consequent upon many days and nights of constant watching at the bedside of her children, who were lying sick with typhoid fever.

Alleged Horse Stealing.—Jacob Minehart made information yesterday before Alderman Mullen, charging Martin McLaughlin with the larceny of a horse valued at one hundred dollars. The prosecutor lives in McClure township and the defendant in Beaver county. Minehart alleges that on the night of the 17th his stable was entered and the horse stolen. He has since ascertained that it had been sold to a man in Pittsburgh for seventy dollars, and from information received he believes McLaughlin to be the thief. A warrant was issued.

Sentenced.—John Snyder, who plead nolle contendere to two charges of violation of the license law in selling liquor to minors and selling liquor on the Sabbath, in the June term of the Court of Quarter Sessions, was brought into Court for sentence. On the first charge he was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars to the Commonwealth, costs of prosecution, and to undergo an imprisonment of ten days in the county jail. For selling liquor on Sunday, he was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, thirty dollars fine, and in default thereof undergo ten days imprisonment.

LYNCH LAW.

Adams Express Robbers Taken From Officers and Hung in Indiana.

Three men, Phillip Clifton, Charles Roseberry and Val Elliott, arrested for attempting to rob the Adams Express car at Brownstown, Indiana, on the night of the 10th, left Cincinnati Monday night, under a strong guard, to be placed in the Brownstown jail. When the train reached a point two miles west of Seymour, Indiana, it was stopped by a mob of two hundred men, from Seymour and the vicinity, the guard overpowered, and the three persons taken out of a car and hung.

The lynching was a premeditated affair, occasioned by the determination of citizens of Jackson and adjoining counties, in Indiana, to rid themselves of as desperate a gang of robbers and murderers as has ever been known. A family named Reno, living at Rockford, two miles from Seymour, are the leaders of this gang, whose operations have extended all over the West. The Adams Express Company has been repeatedly robbed by these men, who got on board the trains and overpowered the messenger, or took possession of the engine and express car, running them off from the train, and then leaving them after robbing the safes. A robbery of this kind occurred lately on the Hamilton and Dayton Railroad, near Cincinnati, whereby the American Express Company was robbed of a large amount, the Reno family being the leaders or instigators in the affair. They are also the party who led the raid in Iowa last spring, when so many of the county safes were robbed.

On the 22d of May last the Adams Express Company's car was robbed, eighteen miles from Seymour, of ninety-six thousand dollars, in which the Renos and their friends were the principal actors, some of whom are now in Canada to avoid capture, and others are under arrest. On the 10th inst., Adams Express was again attempted to be robbed about twelve miles west of Seymour, but the arrival of the guards of the Company repulsed the robbers. They captured one and wounded one of the others, two of whom have since been captured, and for the remainder a large reward has been offered. Val Elliott was one of this gang and was arrested on the night of the attempted robbery. Charles Roseberry, a resident of Seymour and pupil of the Renos, was afterwards arrested by the citizens of Seymour. Fred Clifton was also arrested. They all admitted their connection with the affair, and for safe keeping they were taken to Cincinnati, when warrants were procured, and they were put on the train of the Ohio and Mississippi railroad Monday night bound for Brownstown, the county seat of Jackson county. The train was stopped two miles west of Seymour, and the men taken out and hung as stated. Their bodies were found early Tuesday morning hanging to the limbs of trees in the vicinity.

Terrible Tragedy at Altoona—Attempted Murder and Suicide.

The Harrisburg Telegraph, of Monday, contains the following account of a fearful tragedy at Altoona:

Thomas Merklein, of Mechanicsburg, was employed in the Pennsylvania railroad shops at Altoona, where he labored for a considerable time. He there made the acquaintance of a young lady named Seibert, to whom he became devotedly attached and finally the two were betrothed, but, from some cause Miss S. recently saw proper to break the engagement. Merklein made repeated efforts, since, to obtain her consent to a union, but without avail. On Friday evening last he quit work as usual, but did not return next morning. During the forenoon (Saturday) he visited the residence of the Seibert family, and obtained a private interview with Miss S. He again endeavored to gain her consent to marry him. She refused, a the same time stating her cause for so doing, whereupon Merklein drew a pistol and pointing it to her heart, fired, at the same time declaring that she should not be the wife of any one. Immediately after firing he turned the pistol towards his own head, and shot himself, producing instant death. Fortunately, Miss Seibert was not fatally wounded, the bullet entered her arm near the shoulder.

The tragedy produced great excitement among the people of Altoona, where the parties were well known. It is said that Merklein had been intoxicated several days before he performed the deed that stamped him a murderer and suicide.

Grand Reception.

The members of the Lawrence Fire Company are arranging for a grand reception of their new hose carriage to take place on Thursday evening. The company will turn out en masse, and invitations have been extended to the entire fire department to participate in the affair. The procession will form at the Duquesne Depot, Liberty street, and march to the company's engine house in the Fifteenth ward, where they will have a good time generally. The hose carriage was shipped from Philadelphia on Monday, and is expected to arrive here to-day, but the reception is delayed one day later in order to have it properly cleaned up and decorated. The different companies composing the fire department of the city should by all means accept the invitation so kindly extended by the friends of the Fifteenth ward,

Cholera Infantum.

The Allegheny County Medical Society held its quarterly meeting yesterday, in the hall of the University, and although the weather was extremely warm, the attendance of the members was very large. After the transaction of the usual business, reading of reports, &c., an interesting discussion took place on the subject of Cholera Infantum—a disease which is now quite prevalent among infants and young children in this community—in which Drs. Gallaher, King, Coffey, Robinson, Pollock and others participated. Many facts elicited from the older and more experienced members of the profession were highly important and instructive, and cannot fail to prove of incalculable benefit to the faculty and public at large.

Abandonment.

John St. John was arrested yesterday on a charge of abandonment, preferred by his wife before Alderman Donaldson, and after a hearing was committed to jail, in default of bail, for his appearance at Court. The accused, it appears, is a native of Washington City, D. C., and some months since married a young lady of respectable parentage in Cleveland, and afterwards came to this city with his bride. They have been boarding on Penn street since they arrived here, and it appears that Mr. St. Johns' funds gave out, whereupon he pawned his wife's clothing, of which she had a goodly supply, and after squandering the money left her. He had been absent some days before the information was made and did not return until yesterday, when he was arrested by officer Barber.

Alleged Conspiracy Case.

Daniel Haggerty made information yesterday before Alderman Strain charging Alderman Lindsay, John Lutz and Malind Lucas, a colored woman, with conspiracy. Mr. Haggerty alleges that the parties combined to falsely accuse him, and procured Ruth Ann Murray to make information against him for adultery, which proceedings were for the purpose of extorting money. The accused were arrested but waived a hearing, Lindsay and Lutz giving bail in the sum of $1,000 for their appearance at court. In default of bail the woman Lucas was committed.

The Chartiers Valley Railroad—Its Prospects—To be Put Under Contract.

The prospects for the completion of the Chartiers Valley Railroad at present are quite flattering. For some months past the matter has engrossed the attention of men of enterprise residing and owning property along the line of the road, and efforts have been made to secure its completion. These efforts of these energetic and faithful workers, it appears, have not been fruitless, as the object for which they have so diligently labored we learn has been accomplished, and the road will be put under contract soon. The proposition made by the Penna. Railroad Company to construct the road if the citizens living along its line would evince their interest in its completion by subscribing $300,000, and giving the right of way was accepted by those who desired the completion of the road, and it was confidently expected that the sum named could be raised. A number of the leading men in Washington and Allegheny counties owning property on the line of the road, took the matter in hand and labored faithfully to raise the money. Public meetings were held and Committees appointed to receive subscriptions. After the Committees had done all in their power to raise the required amount, a final meeting was held at Cannonsburg Saturday, the 11th inst., at which time the reports of the different Committees were submitted, from which it appears that the sum of $255,000 had been subscribed absolutely, and $15,000 on condition that the road would be completed within a stated time, and the Committee to secure the right of way reported that they had been successful in securing the right of way from all persons through whose lands the road passes, with but two exceptions.

It was stated at this meeting that the amount reported, owing to the decrease in the price of labor and value of material, was equal if not better than the amount required when the proposition was made, and under this view of the question it was resolved to appoint a committee to wait upon Mr. Thompson, President of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and present the matter to him.

Mr. Thompson met the Committee at the Union Depot Hotel yesterday morning, and, after a thorough consideration of the matter, we learn, decided to accept the amount subscribed and have the road completed. Mr. Hampton, Solicitor of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, was directed to examine the subscriptions and releases for right of way, and if they are found to be bonafide the road will be put under contract immediately

This will be cheering news to those energetic and faithful men who have so diligently labored for the consummation of the project, and the completion of the road will infuse new life into the town of Washington, its proposed terminus.

The Red Front Grocery.

Within a few weeks past a wonderful improvement has been made in an establishment opposite the Postoffice. A massive pile of masonry which presented no attractions whatever to the eye of the passer, has through the energy and enterprise of one of our business men, Mr. C. A. Boucher, been converted into a perfect palace in its way. That old dingy place, No. 114 Smithfield street, has assumed a different appearance and has become a place of importance in the city, under the name of the "Red Front Grocery." It is not only improved in its outward appearance, but the interior has been remodeled and refitted, and is now one of the most convenient, attractive, and pleasant business houses in the city. It is only necessary to say that the painting was done by Messrs. Moore & Pollock The most important change of all, however, is the amount of business done at the "Red Front," and the quantity of goods sold there. Mr. Boucher being a thorough and practical business man and, having an extensive acquaintance in the city, is fast building up a trade, which in a short time will be unrivalled. The most extensive stock of tea, coffee and spices to be found in the city will be found at the "Red Front," and he is selling at prices astonishingly low. His stock of sugar is complete, and of his immense stock of shelf goods, canned fruits, vegetables, &c., we can only say that it is one of the largest in the city, and comprises everything usually kept in a first class grocery. Housekeepers will find it to their advantage to call at the "Red Front," No. 114 Smithfield street, before making their purchases elsewhere.

A Mad Bull on a Frolic.

Yesterday morning while a lot of Texan cattle were being driven through Allegheny, one of them broke away from his companions and created considerable excitement for a time by his antics. He commenced operations on Union avenue by attacking an elderly gentleman, whose name we failed to learn, cutting a terrible gash in his arm and severing an artery. The injured man was conveyed to the drug store of Dr. Hazlett, where his wounds received medical attention. The infuriated animal continued in his course through several streets, frightening people out of his way right and left and knocking some down, more or less injuring them. Officer Shaffer, of the police force, endeavored to quiet him but was turned upon and only escaped serious injury by making the quickest time on record. As it was, however, he will need a new coat, his old one being ripped up the back by one of the animal's horns.

There were quite a number of other hairbreadth escapes, but outside of the first operation no one was injured. The bull's frolic was finally terminated by Chief of Police Bowden, who discharged the contents of a rifle into his head, which completely settled the case.

City Treasurership.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—As the time is approaching when it becomes necessary—in accordance with the decision of the Republican Executive Committee—to place in nomination candidates to be voted for in October next, for such municipal offices as will become vacant in the beginning of the year, I, in conjunction with many of our citizens, invite Mr. S. Allinder, our present worthy City Treasurer, to offer himself for re-election. Mr. A. has always been a consistent and truthful Republican, and, without disparaging others, I may say that a more capable or deserving person for the position could not be found within our city limits. Integrity of purpose and action, affability of manners, and a becoming willingness at all times to serve the public, whose courteous servant he is, are conspicuous traits in his character, and such characteristics are enough to point him out as being the fitest man for the position. Then, by all means, let him come forward, and the public will greet him with the same cordial welcome as they did last Fall. VICTOR.

Alleged Hide Thief.

J. K. Shinn, an employe of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, yesterday made information before Alderman Taylor, charging Wm. Haines with the larceny of twenty bundles of green salted hides from the company's depot on Penn street. The property was valued at two hundred dollars. Henry Stewart also made information against the accused for a similar offense, committed at the Allegheny depot on Federal street on the 29th of May, 1868. The last lot was consigned to Taggart & Son and was valued at one hundred and forty-five dollars. The accused was arrested and held to bail in $1,000 in each case for his appearance at Court.

Death of John Fielding—Coroner's Inquest.

Dr. P. W. Herron, sworn—On Saturday evening at half-past nine or ten o'clock called to see deceased; saw him seated on the bed with his clothing off. His face, arms and body were very much burned; applied the proper remedies and remained with the boy about two hours until he became quiet; left orders how he should be attended to; returned at six o'clock the next morning and found him sinking rapidly; thought he would die in an hour; went away satisfied that the burn had caused his death.

The jury returned a verdict "that the deceased came to his death from burning, by the accidental explosion of the oil in the lamp, and they believe that the oil was of an inferior quality, without attaching any criminal responsibility."

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. McIlyar of the Union M. E. Church.

On motion, Messrs. Gallagher, Warren and Charles were appointed a committee to raise funds to carry on the campaign.

Adjourned with benediction by Rev. A. K. Bell.

Domestic Infelicity.

From facts which transpired at the office of Alderman Thomas, yesterday, it would appear that Alexander Cunningham and his wife, Mary, do not know how pleasant it is to "dwell together in unity," or, if they do, fail to profit by it. Alexander appeared at the office mentioned, yesterday, and made information, charging his wife with disorderly conduct, and the wife retaliated by making an information against him for assault and battery, alleging that he beat her with a poker and otherwise abused her. Warrants were issued for their arrest.

Aggravated Assault—Robert Sproul, who has charge of a number of hacks at the Union Depot, was brought before Alderman Strain yesterday, charged with aggravated assault and battery on oath of Edward Holden. Holden alleges that Sproul attacked him at the depot with a chair, knocking him down, kicking and ending with a severe choking. Sproul was arrested and held in $500 bail for a hearing.

Surety of the Peace.—John Owens was brought before Alderman Mullen, yesterday, on an information made against him by Nancy Francis for surety of the peace. Nancy alleges that John tried to break into her house and threatened to kick her heart out. John was arrested and held for a hearing.

Street Fight.—Frank Toner and Barney McClafferty were arrested last night about half-past twelve o'clock for engaging in a street fight at the corner of Washington and Webster streets. Whisky was the cause of the difficulty between them.

Books and Stationery.

Col. J. P. Eagan at his book and stationery store on Sixth street, near Smithfield, has on hand over five thousand volumes of rare and valuable works, which he is selling off at half price; also all the magazines for August are to be found on his counter. His stock of stationery is full and complete, embracing everything usually kept in a first-class stationery establishment, all of which he is selling wholesale and retail at Eastern prices. The assortment of toy books for the little folks to be found at this house is one of the most complete in the city, embracing every variety. The community in general and retail dealers in particular will do well to give the Colonel a call before making their purchases.

The Original "Diamond Front."

The grocery store of Messrs. M'Bride & George, No. 164 Federal street, Allegheny, is the original "Diamond Front." The proprietors make it a rule to keep constantly on hand a large and well selected stock of fresh groceries—fresh, we say, because the immense patronage this house receives prevents the possibility of goods becoming stale on their hands—and a full supply of provisions, which they will sell at the most reasonable prices. The patrons of this house may rely on getting what they pay for, and that they will always find the best the market affords.

First Class Grocery.

The original "Diamond Front" grocery store of Messrs. McBride & George, 164 Federal street, Allegheny, is a first-class establishment. The proprietors are shrewd business men and strictly honorable in their dealings. No where else in the two cities can be found a larger or fresher stock of pure and unadulterated teas, coffees, spices, general groceries and provisions. Dealers who buy to sell again, as well as retail patrons, will consult their own interests, by favoring the original Diamond Front Grocery with a purchasing visit.

Chapped Hands, face and all roughness of the skin, certainly cured by using the Juniper Tar Soap, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York. It surpasses all other remedies as it will prevent roughness of the skin if used during cold weather. It is easily applied, avoiding all the trouble of the greasy compounds now in use. It can be used by ladies with the most tender skin, without irritation or pain, making it soft and clear. Sold by the druggists generally. wT

A Model Establishment.—We take pleasure in recommending the establishment of Mr. T. T. Ewens, No. 165 Wood street, as a model of its kind. Besides paying careful attention to gas and steam fitting and plumbing, he keeps constantly on hand a large and well selected stock of everything in the way of gas fixtures, pumps, &c. Remember the place, 165 Wood street.

The elegantly furnished and pleasantly located dining rooms of Mr. P. H. McGuire are becoming highly popular with those who take their meals at restaurants. The rooms are situated on Fifth street, at No. 105, a quiet and pleasant location, which is of itself sufficient inducement for persons to patronize the establishment. Clean tables, good attendance, and all the substantials and delicacies of the market can at all times be depended upon.

Head Quarters.—At the fashionable and reliable notion and trimming store, No. 81 Market street, which is presided over by Mr. W. W. Moorhead, a very fine assortment of hosiery has been opened and will be sold at prices to suit purchasers. The ladies will find this establishment "Head Quarters" for fashionable goods. The stock of edgings, laces, insertings, embroideries, &c., is unusually large and of a very superior quality.

At Moorhead's.—The stock of gloves, fans, laces, embroideries, hosiery, and in fact every description of light goods and trimmings, at W. W. Moorhead's, 81 Market street, is one of the largest and best selected ever brought to this market. The stock of notions is unusually large, and the quality of the goods sold at this house has made a reputation for it of which the proprietor may well be proud.

Gas and Steam Fitting.—Those of our readers who want anything in the line of gas and steam fitting promptly done and at reasonable rates, should remember the establishment of Mr. T. T. "Onward, right onward,
Into the valley of death,
Rode the Six Hundred."

But larger, by hundreds multiplied into millions, than the doomed band who rode to swift destruction, in Tennyson's poem, is the great cavalcade of unhappy men who are rushing to untimely graves, followed by the gaunt spectre Dyspepsia. This is all wrong, and should cease. Plantation Bitters, the great Stomachic Pain Killer, cures Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Headache, Vertigo, Dullness, and all symptoms of kindred character, as if by magic. For Langnor, Lassitude, Great Weakness and Mental Depression, they have a most wonderful effect.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—A delightful toilet article—superior to Cologne, and at half the price. MWF&F
